

Article - Election Law

[Previous][Next]

§5-701.

Nominations for public offices that are filled by elections governed by this article shall be made:

- (1) by party primary, for candidates of a principal political party;
- (2) by petition, for candidates not affiliated with any political party; or
- (3) in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the political party, for candidates of a political party that does not nominate by party primary.

[Previous][Next]