§9–209.

(a) Within 2 days after the content and arrangement of the ballot are certified under § 9–207 of this subtitle, a registered voter may seek judicial review of the content and arrangement, or to correct any other error, by filing a sworn petition with the circuit court for Anne Arundel County.

(b) The circuit court may require the State Board to:

- (1) correct an error;
- (2) show cause why an error should not be corrected; or
- (3) take any other action required to provide appropriate relief.

(c) If an error is discovered after the ballots have been printed, and the State Board fails to correct the error, a registered voter may seek judicial review not later than the second Monday preceding the election.
