

Article - Health Occupations

[Previous][Next]

§1-605.

(a) As an alternative to a formal hearing, each health occupations board may establish a program for licensees or certificate holders who commit a single standard of care violation.

(b) A program established under this section shall provide training, mentoring, or other forms of remediation as determined by the health occupations board.

(c) A health occupations board may refer a licensee to the program.

[Previous][Next]