

Article - Insurance

[Previous][Next]

§12-103.

An otherwise valid insurance policy, rider, or endorsement issued after December 31, 1963, with a condition or provision that does not comply with the requirements of this article is not invalid but is to be construed and applied in accordance with the condition or provision that would be applicable if the policy, rider, or endorsement were in full compliance with this article.

[Previous][Next]