§12–209.

A life insurance or health insurance policy or annuity contract may not be delivered or issued for delivery in the State if the policy or contract:

- (1) states that the policy or contract is to be construed according to the laws of another state or country;
- (2) states that the rights and obligations of the insured or of a person with a claim under the policy or contract are to be governed by laws other than the laws of this State;
- (3) provides a period shorter than 3 years within which an action may be brought on the policy or contract;
- (4) deprives the courts of the State of the jurisdiction of any action against the insurer;
- (5) provides that the insurance producer who solicits the insurance or annuity is the agent of the insured; or
- (6) makes the acts or representations of the insurance producer who solicits the insurance or annuity binding on the insured.
