

Article - Insurance

[Previous][Next]

§2-303.

The purposes of the Program include:

- (1) providing information and helping consumers with the procedures for filing a complaint with the Commissioner against any person regulated by this article;
- (2) on request, giving information about an insurer to the extent that the information lawfully is disclosable; and
- (3) developing an information and assistance system to provide information about and to help consumers with:
 - (i) personal insurance coverages, including health insurance and life insurance coverages;
 - (ii) underwriting practices;
 - (iii) general rating concepts;
 - (iv) claim procedures of insurers; and
 - (v) any other relevant services.

[Previous][Next]