

Article - Insurance

[Previous][Next]

§8-211.

(a) The acts of a managing general agent are deemed to be the acts of the insurer for whom the managing general agent is acting.

(b) If a managing general agent becomes insolvent, the obligations of the managing general agent with respect to policyholders of an insurer shall be assumed by that insurer.

[Previous][Next]