

Article - Insurance

[Previous][Next]

§8-508.

(a) A license issued to an individual authorizes the individual to act as a reinsurance intermediary.

(b) A license issued to a firm or association authorizes each member of the firm or association, and each employee of the firm or association who is listed on the license, to act as a reinsurance intermediary.

(c) A license issued to a corporation authorizes each officer of the corporation, and each employee or director of the corporation who is listed on the license, to act as a reinsurance intermediary.

[Previous][Next]