

Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§10–1001.

(a) In this section, “unit” means an officer or other entity in the Executive Branch.

(b) Unless otherwise provided by statute or regulation, a unit of State government authorized by law to impose a civil penalty up to a specific dollar amount for violation of any statute or regulation shall consider the following in setting the amount of the penalty:

- (1) the severity of the violation for which the penalty is to be assessed;
- (2) the good faith of the violator; and
- (3) any history of prior violations.

[Previous][Next]