

Article - Transportation

[Previous][Next]

§8-635.

At the request of any proper county agency, the Administration shall provide to the county engineering advice and information on the county's road program, including its farm-to-market road program. The Administration may not charge the cost of this advice or information either to the county, to the county's share of highway user revenues, or to other funds allocated to the county.

[Previous][Next]