20 Preamble

21 WHEREAS, § 5–324(b)(1)(ii)7B of the Family Law Article provides that, for children 22 placed under an order of guardianship by the juvenile court following the termination of 23 parental rights, the juvenile court shall direct the provision of certain services or the taking 24 of certain actions as to the child’s education, health, and welfare, including, for a child with 25 a disability, services to obtain ongoing care, if any, needed after the guardianship case ends; 26 and

27 WHEREAS, In the recent case of In re Adoption/Guardianship of Dustin R., No. 24,
28 September Term, 2015, the Maryland Court of Appeals affirmed that these provisions 29 empower the juvenile court to order a State agency to provide services needed to obtain 30 ongoing care for a child under an order of guardianship after the child reaches age 21 and 31 the guardianship ends and that these provisions do not violate the separation of powers 32 doctrine enshrined in Article 8 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights; and

33 WHEREAS, The Court of Appeals further held that the juvenile court has inherent 34 parens patriae powers to order these services for the protection of the child; and

35 WHEREAS, The Court of Appeals further held that these services should act as a 36 bridge for a child with a disability to provide continuity as the child transitions to the adult 37 guardianship system; and

1 WHEREAS, The Court of Appeals further stated that, if a State agency challenges
2 the necessity of these services, the juvenile court has the authority to enforce an order 3 directing the provision of these services until the child's adult guardian files a request for 4 a judicial or administrative hearing on the challenge; and

5 WHEREAS, Children in foster care face significant challenges when they age out of 6 the child welfare system and transition to adulthood, including a lack of access to necessary 7 services, resources, and support; and

8 WHEREAS, Children who are under the CINA jurisdiction of the juvenile court ~~or~~ 9 ~~who are under the guardianship jurisdiction of the juvenile court but who do not have a~~
10 ~~disability~~ are not eligible for the protection provided by § 5-324(b)(1)(ii)7B of the Family 11 Law Article, yet would benefit from that protection; now, therefore,
