Judicial Proceedings and Education, Health, and Environmental Affairs

Domestic Violence - Education and Definition of Abuse

This bill expands the definition of “abuse” as it applies to petitions for domestic violence protective orders to include “harassment” and the “malicious destruction of property.” The bill also requires the State Board of Education to encourage the county boards to incorporate age-appropriate lessons on domestic violence into the health education curriculum.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: General fund expenditures for the Judiciary increase by $73,200 in FY 2018 only for programming changes. Otherwise, the bill does not materially impact the workload of the Judiciary. The enforcement of additional protective orders can be handled using existing budgeted resources. The State Board of Education can handle the bill’s requirement using existing budgeted resources. Revenues are not affected.

Local Effect: The bill does not materially impact the workload of the circuit courts. The enforcement of additional protective orders can be handled using existing budgeted resources. Local expenditures may increase minimally to the extent that counties elect to incorporate lessons on domestic violence, as specified; however, the bill does not require counties to do so. Revenues are not affected.

Small Business Effect: None.

“Malicious destruction of property” means an act that willfully destroys, injures, or defaces the real or personal property of another, including a permanent drawing, painting, marking, or inscription, even if the property is held as tenants by the entirety.

If the person for whom relief is sought is a child, “abuse” may also include abuse of a child, as defined in statute. “Abuse” may also include abuse of a vulnerable adult, as defined in statute, if the person for whom relief is sought is a vulnerable adult.
