Senate Bill 639

(Senator Edwards)

Judicial Proceedings

Environment and Transportation

Allegany County - Sheriff's Deputies - Salary and Duties

This bill alters statutory provisions regarding sheriff's deputies in Allegany County by repealing a requirement that salaries must be at least $2,400 each and instead establishing that salaries are to be determined by the sheriff's budget. It also specifies that at least one of the deputies must be assigned to execute process, orders, and directions for the juvenile court and to perform the other duties the sheriff assigns.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: The bill alters outdated statutory provisions and does not impact Allegany County finances or operations.
