Preamble

WHEREAS, In fiscal year 2015, the 50 states and the District of Columbia received $589,700,000,000 from 16 large federal assistance programs that allocate funds on the basis of decennial census–derived statistics; and

WHEREAS, In fiscal year 2015, Maryland benefited from $10,900,000,000 in grants and direct payments from federal health care, education, transportation, nutrition, child care, housing, and energy assistance programs that allocated funds on the basis of decennial census–derived statistics; and

WHEREAS, Undercounting the population of the State and local jurisdictions could jeopardize funding from federal assistance programs that allocate funds on the basis of decennial census–derived statistics; and
