20 shall be available for public inspection.

21 DRAFTER’S NOTE:

22 Error: Erroneous reference in § 5–209(c) of the General Provisions Article.

23 Occurred: Ch. 94, § 2, Acts of 2014, which revised without substantive change the 24 Maryland Public Ethics Law codified under Title 5 of the General Provisions Article (GP).
25 GP, § 5–209 authorizes the State Ethics Commission to exempt from the Maryland Public 26 Ethics Law a board, board member, or municipality after making specified findings. Other 27 provisions of GP, Title 5 authorize the Commission to grant various other exemptions from 28 the Public Ethics Law (see, e.g., GP, § 5–502(d), authorizing the Commission to grant public 29 officials or employees of the Executive Branch an exemption from certain employment 30 restrictions if it makes specified determinations).

1 Under GP, § 5–209(c), records of an exemption granted by the Commission to a board,
2 board member, or municipality are subject to public inspection. This public inspection
3 requirement does not expressly apply to other exemptions that the Commission may grant.
4 Under the source law for GP, § 5–209(c) (former § 15–209 of the State Government Article), 5 however, the public inspection requirement applied to “an exemption ... granted under this 6 title [former Title 15 of the State Government Article, the Public Ethics Law]” and was 7 interpreted by the Commission to apply to all exemptions granted by the Commission.
8 Section 4 of Chapter 94 of 2014 stated expressly that “... this Act shall be construed as a 9 nonsubstantive revision, and may not otherwise be construed to render any substantive 10 change in the law of the State”. As a result, the application of the public inspection 11 requirement under GP, § 5–209(c) is amended to apply to all exemptions granted by the 12 Commission under the Public Ethics Law, to be consistent with Commission interpretation
13 of the Public Ethics Law before enactment of Chapter 94 of 2014 and to conform to current 14 and past practice.
