Senate Bill 1178 (Senator Edwards)
Education, Health, and Environmental Affairs

General Provisions - Commemorative Months - Maryland Sportsmanship Month

This bill requires the Governor to annually proclaim March as Maryland Sportsmanship Month. The proclamation must urge local recreation and parks departments to observe Maryland Sportsmanship Month with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities. Examples of appropriate observation are specified.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The bill is directed at local recreation and parks departments.

Local Effect: Minimal. Any increase in local recreation and parks department expenditures depends on if and how local governments choose to observe Maryland Sportsmanship Month. The bill grants flexibility on how to commemorate the occasion and does not require participation.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Sixteen official commemorative days, 6 months, and 1 week are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3:00 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: The preamble states that those involved in sports, including coaches, players, and fans at all levels should promote good sportsmanship and foster the development of positive characteristics in all individuals. It further notes that sportsmanship can promote inclusion by providing a safe and healthy environment where players value respect, fairness, integrity, responsibility, and perseverance. According to the preamble, a number of local recreation and parks departments across the State have successfully implemented sportsmanship months at the local level.
