Health and Government Operations

General Provisions - Commemorative Days - Missing Children Day

This bill requires the Governor to annually proclaim May 25 as Missing Children Day.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Commemorating Missing Children Day does not affect State finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Sixteen official commemorative days, six months, and one week are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3:00 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: President Ronald Reagan proclaimed May 25 as National Missing Children's Day in 1983. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, the day is dedicated to encouraging parents, guardians, caregivers, and others concerned with the well-being of children to make child safety a priority. It also serves as a reminder of continuous efforts to reunite missing children with their families and an occasion to honor those who work for this cause.
