Health and Government Operations

General Provisions - Commemorative Days - International Day of the Girl

This bill requires the Governor to annually proclaim October 11 as International Day of the Girl. The proclamation must urge educational and cultural organizations to observe the International Day of the Girl properly.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Commemorating International Day of the Girl does not affect State finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Sixteen official commemorative days, six months, and one week are recognized in State law, as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3:00 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: In 2011, the United Nations (U.N.) General Assembly designated October 11 as International Day of the Girl Child. According to the U.N., the day serves as an occasion to raise awareness about the needs and challenges of girls around the world and promote girls' empowerment and human rights.
