A BILL ENTITLED

AN ACT concerning

Legislative and Congressional Districts – Criteria and Open Hearing Process
(Fair Maps Act)

FOR the purpose of proposing an amendment to the Maryland Constitution to amend the standards to which legislative districts are required to conform; proposing adding a new article to the Maryland Constitution to require that congressional districts conform to certain standards; requiring that due regard be given to certain boundaries; requiring the General Assembly to establish and implement an open hearing process for public input and deliberation; submitting this amendment to the qualified voters of the State for their adoption or rejection; making certain provisions of this Act contingent on the passage and ratification of a certain constitutional amendment; and generally relating to legislative and congressional districts.

BY proposing an amendment to the Maryland Constitution

Article III – Legislative Department

Section 4

BY proposing an addition to the Maryland Constitution

New Article XX – Congressional Districts

Section 1

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, (Three–fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring), That it be proposed that the Maryland Constitution read as follows:

Article III – Legislative Department

4.
(A) Each legislative district shall consist of adjoining territory, be compact in form, and of substantially equal population. Due regard shall be given to natural boundaries and the boundaries of political subdivisions.

(B) Legislative districts shall comply with:

(1) The U.S. Constitution and the Federal Voting Rights Act or its successor law; and

(2) The additional following criteria as set forth in the following order of priority:

   (I) Be of substantially equal population;

   (II) Be geographically contiguous;

   (III) Provide racial, ethnic, and language groups with an equal opportunity to participate in the political process, and not dilute or diminish their ability to elect candidates of choice whether alone or in coalition with others;

   (IV) Respect the integrity of areas with recognized similarities of interests, including but not limited to racial, ethnic, economic, social, cultural, geographic, or historical identities, but not based on common relationships with political parties or political candidates;

   (V) Respect natural boundaries and the boundaries of political subdivisions; and

   (VI) Be compact in form.

Article XX – Congressional Districts

1.

(A) Each congressional district shall consist of adjoining territory, be compact in form, and be of equal population. Due regard shall be given to natural boundaries and the boundaries of political subdivisions.

(B) Congressional districts shall comply with:

(1) The U.S. Constitution and the Federal Voting Rights Act or its successor law; and
Act or its successor law; and

(2) The additional following criteria as set forth in the following order of priority:

(i) Be of equal population;

(ii) Be geographically contiguous;

(iii) Provide racial, ethnic, and language groups with an equal opportunity to participate in the political process, and not dilute or diminish their ability to elect candidates of choice whether alone or in coalition of others;

(iv) Respect the integrity of areas with recognized similarities of interests, including but not limited to racial, ethnic, economic, social, cultural, geographic, or historical identities, but not based on common relationships with political parties or political candidates;

(v) Respect natural boundaries and the boundaries of political subdivisions; and

(vi) Be compact in form.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the General Assembly shall establish and implement an open hearing process for public input and deliberation that shall be subject to public notice and promoted through a thorough outreach program to solicit broad public participation in the redistricting public review process.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the General Assembly determines that the amendment to the Maryland Constitution proposed by Section 1 of this Act affects multiple jurisdictions and that the provisions of Article XIV, § 1 of the Maryland Constitution concerning local approval of constitutional amendments do not apply.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the amendment to the Maryland Constitution proposed by Section 1 of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at the next general election to be held in November 2020 for adoption or rejection pursuant to Article XIV of the Maryland Constitution. At that general election, the vote on the proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and on each ballot there shall be printed the words “For the Constitutional Amendment” and “Against the Constitutional Amendment”, as now provided by law. Immediately after the election, all returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against the proposed amendment, as directed by Article XIV of the Maryland Constitution, and further proceedings had in accordance with Article XIV.
SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 2 of this Act is contingent on the passage of Section 1 of this Act, a constitutional amendment, and its ratification by voters of the State.

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, subject to the provisions of Section 5 of this Act, Section 2 of this Act shall take effect on the proclamation of the Governor that the constitutional amendment, having received a majority of the votes cast at the general election, has been adopted by the people of Maryland.
