Maryland Wage and Hour Law and Maryland Wage Payment and Collection

Law – Revisions

(Maryland Wage Protection Act)

FOR the purpose of requiring that a certain summary that certain employers are required to keep conspicuously posted in certain places of employment include certain antiretaliation provisions; prohibiting certain employers from taking certain actions under the Maryland Wage and Hour Law and the Maryland Wage Payment and Collection Law; prohibiting certain employers from discriminating against certain employees under certain circumstances; altering the conditions under which certain employers are prohibited from taking adverse actions against certain employees under certain circumstances; altering the list of acts that constitute adverse action under a certain provision of law; prohibiting an individual, rather than an employee, from making certain complaints to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry or bringing certain actions or testifying in certain actions in bad faith; requiring that the burden of proof as proved by clear and convincing evidence under certain actions be on the defendant based on certain actions under certain circumstances; establishing that a certain employer taking certain actions against an employee within a certain time period creates a rebuttable presumption that the employer retaliated against the employee under certain circumstances; authorizing the Commissioner to conduct an investigation under the Maryland Wage and Hour Law on the Commissioner's own initiative or on receipt of a certain complaint; requiring that certain names be kept confidential except under certain circumstances; authorizing the Commissioner to conduct an investigation under the Maryland Wage Payment and Collection Law on the Commissioner's own initiative; authorizing a certain employee to bring an action against an employer for a violation of certain provisions of this Act; requiring that a certain action be filed within a certain period; providing that a certain action may encompass certain violations; providing that a certain limitation period does not apply during a certain investigation; requiring a court to allow against a certain employer reasonable counsel fees and costs in a certain action; establishing certain penalties against certain employers; authorizing
