10. Description and Purpose of Organization (Limit length to visible area)
The Grantee is the Board of Education of Anne Arundel County. The BOE provides leadership, vision, and support to AACPS that ensures an equitable, world-class education and creates a lifelong learning. The request came from the Linthicum Elementary School PTA. LES is located in Northern AACO and serves 477 students from K to fifth-grade. There are 22 teachers and a 21.6:1 student to teacher ratio. LES has been named a National Blue Ribbon School and a Maryland Green School. The PTA averages approximately 200 members per year. On average, the PTA raises $39,000 per year through annual membership dues, school events, and partnering with local businesses. Each year, the funds raised help further the students socially and academically.
