House Bill 873
Ways and Means

(Delegate Boyce, et al.)
Education, Health, and Environmental Affairs

Election Law – Party and Elected Public Offices – Prohibitions

This bill establishes that an individual may not (1) simultaneously be a candidate for a political party office and an elected public office or (2) simultaneously hold a political party office and an elected public office. The bill establishes, however, that these provisions do not apply to an individual who simultaneously holds an elected public office and is on the ballot for the national presidential nominating convention. The bill takes effect January 1, 2021.

Analysis

Current Law:

Simultaneous Candidacy

Unless otherwise prohibited by rule of the applicable political party, an individual simultaneously may be a candidate for a political party office and a public office. An individual, however, may not simultaneously be a candidate for more than one public office or more than one political party office.

Qualifications for Candidacy

An individual may become a candidate for a public or party office only if the individual satisfies the qualifications for that office established by law and, in the case of a party office, by party constitution or bylaws.

Political Party Governance

Each political party must have a State central committee that is the governing body of the political party and may be composed of the members of the central committees of the counties during their terms in office. A principal political party must elect the members of a county central committee at a primary election.
