(9) In your own words, please describe in detail the project's background and your need for a prior authorization.
The purpose of this project is to advance the proposal to create an East Baltimore Historical Library. The concept was pioneered by an East Baltimore community activist in 2000, as the Middle East neighborhood braced for major external changes. She advocated for a physical place to preserve, interpret and convey the rich history of a set of East Baltimore neighborhoods. In 1992, the Mayor and City Council approved plan to created a new mixed-use, mixed-income community in East Baltimore, which required the acquisition of 2,000 properties in Middle East and relocation of approximately 750 families. As the development has proceeded, interest in preserving the history of the community has grown and spread across a wider area, including many community leaders, residents, and former residents. The EBHL will focus on the history of African Americans in East Baltimore, but within the broader context in which African Americans came to live in the neighborhood and the social forces that shaped the wider community. The Historical Library will be housed on the campus of the new school being built as part of the New East Baltimore project.
