Lord, as we begin a new year, please bless our honorable Maryland State Assembly gathered here, with the holy gift of selfless service and integrity that generates goodness, beauty, unity, and the pursuit of truth You desire for all humankind. Be Thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation, give them wisdom in Council and valor in doing the harder right then the easier wrong. Direct the councils of this Honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation to defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people, the many who have come to this great state of Maryland. May we prove ourselves here in this Assembly, a people mindful of our blessings of Liberty, Justice and freedom to worship. God Our Father, Bless this Assembly with Thy spirit of wisdom, bless our Maryland Assembly with honorable ministry, sound learning, and pure integrity, we ask this in Thy name as we entrust the authority of Government to all assembled here. God Bless this Honorable Assembly, God Bless our State of Maryland and God bless America.
We Pray to the Lord, Amen

Life Church

Hunt Valley, MD

Dear God,

Thank you for this day we've been given to pursue the agenda of our state and to do the work of representing our constituents. We recognize it's a big job, but you've provided the opportunity to us, so we choose to believe that, with your help, we can handle it. It's with humble hearts and open hands we take a moment to receive from you what we need to accomplish today's work.

There are many words that could describe you, God, but this morning we focus on one. You are good. You're high above the affairs of our lives, and our state. We believe our confidence in you is well-placed, because by faith we affirm that you know all things and are working your divine purpose.

As we begin our day together, may we as leaders and representatives of people made in your image, ultimately seek to do what you want, and may what is accomplished in this building reflect your values and priorities. Forgive us for the times we've fallen short. And thank you for the opportunity to try again. As mentioned in the scriptures, "Godliness makes a nation great." So today, Lord, may our work make our state, great.

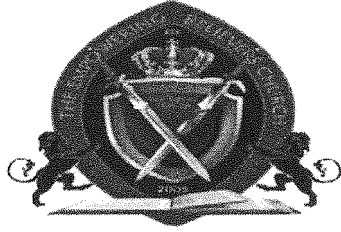

Grant us God, the wisdom we need to make good decisions. May we respect and honor you and our colleagues with our deliberations. When disagreement stands up, may respect stand taller. When patience wears out, may grace keep running. During strong debate, guard our mouths and soften our hearts. And may hard-fought politics and intentional deference live next door to each other today.

Thank you, Lord, for hearing us. Thank you for guiding us. And thank you for lifting us up to a higher place, one marked by a God who is good. None of us deserves this elevation, but for it, we simply say thank you.

God, bless Maryland.

And it's for your glory, and in your name, we pray these things,

Amen.

January 13, 2017 Invocation before the Maryland Senate

Good morning and Happy New Year to the members of the 2017 Senate

To Mr. President, Senator Mike Miller and Senator James DeGrange who invited me here this morning.

As we prepare to handle the various legislation that will be presented during this session of the General Assembly let us first of all remember those who we serve.

As we look for guidance and hear the various issues that will be presented, let us look to our God for guidance. We are living in a time of division and unrest. I pray that you can cross party lines as well as other things that will divide you and come to a place where you can make wise decisions for the betterment of those whom you represent. You are challenged to make decisions on Immigration, Healthcare, The Homeless, Education and our Environment just to name a few. Different groups will come to present their concerns regarding children, seniors and other vulnerable members of our state.

I pray that the Grace of God will sustain you as you allow His mercy to be with you. I pray that you will be compassionate as we are called upon to bring healing to this great state and nation.

We acknowledge the injustice and lack of tolerance that is in our communities. We ask for your divine protection as we seek for common ground. Help these men and women of this great Senate to accomplish the work that you have placed in their hands.

Now may your grace and peace be multiplied, in your name we pray!

Your Servant,

Larry Lee Thomas Sr.

Invocation before the Maryland State Senate

Monday January 16, 2017

The Reverend Michael Anthony Carrington

God, Creator of heaven and earth, before we part our lips to speak of anything else, I ask that you forgive us. God of Mercy, forgive us! At times we failed to be an obedient people. We have not always heard the cry of the needy and of each other. As leaders, we have often failed to be fully attentive to your will. Forgive us, we pray!

God of Mercy, while we assemble this day, I pray that you will lead and guide us into all truth and into that which is righteous. You call us to do that which is just, love mercifully, and walk humbly with you. Creator of all, I ask that we incline our ears to hear your voice, which is the sound of peace and justice.

When all has been said and one in this place, and we have adjourned, I asked that you detain us in your divine presence. Arrest us in your abundant grace. Sentence us to life in your goodness. After in the end, may we be found guilty for loving each other and transforming lives! May we be found guilty for feeding the hungry, clothing the naked and visiting the loss, least, and looked-over!

We ask this in the name of You who sits high and watch us here, below.

Amen!

Senate Invocation

Tuesday January 17, 2017

Pastor George Raduano

Guest of the Honorable Senator from the thirty second district

Heavenly Father,

At the start of this day, our hearts are filled with gratitude for all your blessings. Once again, we have the honor of serving You, our families, our communities, and all the people of Maryland.

We now humble ourselves before you and ask for your divine guidance. We admit our need for wisdom that only comes from your hand. We ask for a fresh vision for the future. We seek pure hearts and minds to rule without guile. We need ears to hear the cries of those in need. We need your strength for our hands and our feet. The task is large but with your help, we will accomplish fulfill your purposes.

I pray for your blessings and favor to be on these fine women and men and upon their families. Reward their diligence and enlarge their hearts for your purposes. As Aaron blessed his nation I also bless this body - "May the Lord bless you and protect you. May the Lord smile on you and be gracious to you. May the Lord show you his favor and give you his peace." (Numbers 6:24-26, NLT)

In these chambers, "May your will be done... for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Rev. Dr. Tracey Davenport
Harundale Presbyterian Church

Amazing God,
In a world of chaos, you are our peace. In a world of evil of every kind, you are righteousness.
In a world of oppression, you are justice. In a world of violence, you are love. In a world of darkness, you are our light.

I ask your peace, righteousness, justice, love and light for all the citizens of Maryland and so I invoke your blessing on our leaders. May our elected leaders serve in honor and integrity, with wisdom and patience, with justice and righteousness to write and pass laws that help the people they serve to thrive. May their legislative work guide your people to live the abundant life you wish for them. I ask knowing that you are listening and eager to act on our behalf. Amen.

January 19, 2017

Our Father, you are great and greatly to be praised. It is in you that we live and move and have our being. We pray to you this morning, humbled that you allow us and encourage us to approach your throne of grace. We acknowledge that you are intimately involved in the affairs of us all and that we are accountable to you, our Maker. We confess our tendency to rely on ourselves and our great need to depend more on you. Thank you for making the way for us to know and take joy in you.

You have instituted government for the order and flourishing of society and those who lead are your servants for our good. Your Word tells us to pray for those in authority and high positions and we gladly do that today.

For President Miller and each of these Senators, God we ask for your blessing. We are thankful for their sacrifice and service, first of all to you and then to the people of Maryland. We pray that you will grant great discernment to this body for the decisions made affecting millions of jobs and homes, billions of dollars.

During this busy session, we pray for your favor in their families, marriages and physical health. We pray for each of their staff members and interns as they serve as well.

Father, in times of frustration and conflict that inevitably come, grant your grace and patience to these senators, that all will be treated with respect and understanding. May you be honored as much in their conduct as you are in the content of their decisions.

For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

Prayer for the Maryland State Senate on Friday, January 20, 2017

By: Rev. Dr. Alvin C. Hathaway, Sr., Senior Pastor, Union Baptist Church

Let us pray: Our national government is making a change in administrations today. We will witness the peaceful transfer of executive power from the Presidency of Barack Obama to the Presidency of Donald Trump. For many this signals a sweet winter breeze, for others it feels like a turbulent storm. May we take a pause from our emotional selves and rely on our rational minds by understanding that all the people of this land are Americans. All of us seek justice, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Being an American is an honor that was hewed out of the stone of foreign and domestic struggle.

As members of the Senate of Maryland may we never forget our sacred oath to uphold the laws of our land and to forge legislation that will improve the quality of life for Marylanders. May we resist the temptation to vilify and not compromise. May we seek the high ground of reconciliation and constructive conversation. May we lead our citizenry from the precipice of division into an oasis of mutual commonality. May we be respectful in debate and civil in our different perspectives. May we seek to uplift the members of our state who feel the awesome weight of despair and the frustration of limited options. May we provide hope to those who feel all is lost. May we provide encouragement to those who need a helping hand. May we never forget we have been blessed to serve in this distinguished body with the hopes, dreams and aspirations of the members of our districts either rising or sinking on our actions this session. May our actions stand the scrutiny of transparency and our ethics be beyond reproach.

It is within this hollowed room, this sacred space; that we also pray for Senator Lisa Gladden, my representative, my neighbor, and my friend. A Senator whose parents I knew and a lady who I witnessed grow into a statewide leader. We pray for her as she, like we all will one day, wrestles with the frailty of life.

We are all mortal and therefore we must pray for each other, for our health, for our families, for our staff members and for our community. It is through the power of petition that heaven answers and affirms the good that is in all of us.

As close this prayer I pray for each and every person in this chamber and those who are watching this telecast. May we embrace Maryland's motto, "Strong deeds, gentle words." May our deeds on behalf of all of our citizens be strong and the words by which we communicate with each other be gentle.

May this be our unifying cry, God Bless America and the State of Maryland too!

AMEN

The Servant Church

INVOCATION FOR MARYLAND SENATE

January 23, 2017

Rev. Clare L. Petersberger

God of the Galaxies,
out of the stars each of us comes--- to shine like stars
especially in dark times.

We give thanks
for those whose light of truth,
warmth of love,
and fire of commitment inspires and encourages our own.

We give thanks
for those who, even on our worst days,
our most apathetic and cynical days,
see the holy spark that shines from us
and saves us from despair.

We give thanks
for enlightened minds and caring hearts working together to shine a bright light for those in our communities trying to get through trying to find a way out of the darkness, trying to get home.

Bless our Senators who listen to the concerns and dreams of Maryland citizens;
envision legislation to serve the common good;
and respectfully and courageously work together
for a brighter future.

God of the Galaxies,
we are called to shine.

May we remember who we are and what we love.
May we remember that to which
(and those to whom) we give our lives.

May we remember that the light of our minds,
the love of our hearts,
and the work of our hands
are beacons of hope for others.

May we let the lights within us and among us shine.

Amen.

Senate Invocation
Pastor Carrie Yearick
January 24, 2017

Good and Gracious God,

We thank you for this assembly who gathers here to do the work of this great state especially when so much divisiveness has entered our political and social systems. It is hard to lead sometimes, O Lord, but it is with great hope that we strive to find some common ground in which to work. We are mindful of your love and justice in these senate members who work tirelessly for justice to become a reality in the lives of those who struggle even for the basics of food and shelter, health care and jobs. We thank you for the long hours these senate members put in as they study, discuss and discern the best path forward for our state and districts in which we live. We thank you for their leadership in implementing policies that unite us and create atmospheres of innovation and hope. Give them wisdom and persistence to act in bold and courageous ways that pave a way forward in these difficult times. May your guiding hand touch each of their hearts and minds as they deliberate on the varied agenda items today. We pray all this in your name. Amen.

Senate Prayer
January 25, 2017

Dear Great Governor of all things,

We humans have been created by you, to worship you and steward the world you've created. We are as you've said, caretakers not only of the earth and all things non-human, but also each other as collective humanity.

We confess today our general failure at stewarding each other and the world in which we live. We struggle with managing effectively both natural and human resources. Please anoint me and these gathered here to do better at nurturing a salubrious environment and society.

Regarding society, we are living in a perilous time of terror and division. This is far from your desire. Please break down our individual and collective pride, that we might see the value of the other as you see their value. That as we look into the eye of our enemy, we would see ourselves, and that vision disarm all hostility. For we are all equally fragile and valuable in your sight. And forgive your people, for too often being a part of the problem than the solution.

Finally, God heal our ego blinded eyes, to see as you see. In doing so you will transform our hopelessness to hope, fear to faith, hate to love, division to unity, terror to tenderness. May it be so.

Amen.

Thursday January 26, 2017
Maryland Senate Invocation
Bishop Heber Brown

O GOD of many Names,

We beseech you today as we humbly acknowledge your sovereignty in the Earth. We accept today's gift of life as your invitation to co-labor with you toward the good of all mankind. Strengthen our resolve to be our brother's and sister's keeper. So we pray for those who sit in seats of power that your wisdom and discernment might guide their decisions. For the weight of the decisions made here and the enormity of their task cause lives to be weighed in the balance.

So I pray that empathy and compassion be employed as they contemplate budgetary considerations. May good stewardship and a cooperative spirit abide with those assembled that the greater good might be accomplished. Cause the resolutions through this body to initiate a rippling effect from Annapolis to Baltimore City, throughout the counties, and State at-large which will: strengthen family structures, improve educational systems, create employment opportunities, and turn the tide of violence in our streets.

Thank you, God, that You have divinely orchestrated the paths of each person here to be an instrument in your Hands. Now use us to your glory and to the benefit of our neighbors. Amen!

Invocation before the Senate
Friday January 27, 2017
Pastor Kristi King from New Light Lutheran Church

Holy and Gracious God, we thank you for this new day and all that you have made possible in it. As this assembly attends to the decisions before it; we pray with thanks for the blessing of work to do that matters and for all who are seeking work on this day. We pray with thanks for health and strength and the mental acuity to do the things before us and we pray for all who are struggling, for all who are fearful, and for all who are troubled in body or mind today. We thank you for the blessing and the responsibility of leadership and ask for the grace to be worthy of the work you have given us. Grant everyone in this room the discernment to make the decisions that will help all not just today but in the long-term, to be mindful of the most vulnerable, and to be passionate for the sake of those they are called to serve. And because it is not only the decisions that are made, but the way they are made that matters, we pray for your Holy Spirit in this place. May we be leaders by example: serving with integrity and honesty, with willingness to listen and with respect for each other, with compassion and courage, with innovation and creativity, and with a sense that even when we disagree we are still neighbors, colleagues, and friends and in this together for the good of all. We ask all these things trusting in your presence with us.

Amen.

Reverend Jeffrie Long Sr.

Communion Way of the Cross Church

Monday, January 30, 2017

Father,

You alone have been our dwelling place from generations to generations. We rest in the assurance that you are God, sovereign in your acts and attributes. We know that you are present amongst the members of this august body today. We invoke your presence into this place, asking that you be the driving force behind every decision made. Allow the wisdom that you bestowed upon your servant, King Solomon illuminate the cognitive processes of the minds of these your people this evening. Father, in this moment our nation faces a great deal of turmoil and unrest. Help us to recognize that it is only through your enablement, that we will be able to unite together, without respect of race, gender, nationality, and creed. Finally, we pray oh Lord that you would look upon the needs of each individual standing here today. Preserve them and strengthen them for the journey that lies ahead. We thank you for all things, In the name of the Lord, AMEN.

Invocation before the Senate
Reverend Matthew Himes
Tuesday January 31, 2017

Almighty God, source of all being, creator and sustainer. You have given hope to a people in darkness; you have preserved your people through your love and mercy.

Guide us this day with your light. May your light shine forth upon us, a people in need of guidance and wisdom. We pray to you God of all authority, wisdom, might, and mercy that you may protect these great United States of America. That you may guide our President and his administration to do what is right and just.

Let your light guide us to greater respect of all religions, creeds, and customs. Let your light of wisdom shine brightly and penetrate the deliberations of Congress and all laws so as to promote life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, freedom in this great nation.

We pray for his excellency, Governor Hogan, for the members of the Senate, the assembly, all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by your powerful protection to live out their duties with honesty, respect, and right judgment.

We implore you, O God of mercy, to shed your guiding light and love upon our fellow citizens throughout the United States. Bless them with obedience to do your will and a desire to build a nation and world of unity and peace.

Finally, we pray to You, God of everlasting love, to remember all of the souls of Your servants who have gone before us in faith and peace; the souls of our parents, relatives, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this Senate and particularly those who are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies, witnessed to the revelation of God in our midst. To these, O Lord grant that they may rest in your peace and that they may be filled with the refreshment, light, and everlasting love only You can provide.

We give you gratitude for this day. We know you are with us. Help us discover You in our midst and open our eyes to the countless blessings you bestow on us this day. Amen.

Reverend Thomas Allen
Senate Invocation February 1, 2017

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail. And finally, help this State Legislature to uphold that which is pure and noble.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace:
where there is hatred, let us sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
We humbly ask for your grace and mercy.
Amen.

Prayer MD Senate, February 2, 2017 by Senator C. Anthony Muse

Good Morning Mr. President and to you my Senate family and friends. I am honored to be here to pray for us. Unlike others who come to pray for us, and believe me they are needed, but I have one advantage over them...so I do not have to pray off of hope alone. Meaning praying for us to be honest and for us to keep the needs of the people first, that is their job to do. Here is what I know of you...We are diverse in our approaches...we represent diverse areas, whose needs and ideas are different, but this I know of you whether we agree or disagree, you are honest, hard-working people doing all that you can to make Maryland all that we can be...I am proud I know you and can pray from a personal perspective...

Let us pray...

Eternal God, Creator of all, sustainer of Life, we come to you today asking for your guidance, keep and strength...Thank you for the privilege to work for those who sent us here to be their voices and their hope.

Thank you for honest, hard-working, and caring men and women. Thank you that when all is said and done, we can still laugh together and wish the best for one another.

God Bless our families and friends who sacrifice much , so that we can serve the people. We pray for those among us who toil and labor while dealing with their own health issues and personal pressures in life!

Bless us in our work we will do this day. May we operate in the spirit of the words of my Grandmother who prayed this daily, "Lord fill our mouths with worthwhile stuff and gently nudge us when we've said enough." I feel you nudging me...so in Your Name, I pray these and all other Blessings.

Amen!!

PRAYER FOR THE SENATE MEETING FEBRUARY 3, 2017

From the rising of the sun to the going down thereof Lord God may Your Holy Name be praised.

Almighty and eternal God the creator of all good things you have entrusted to this body the protection and wellbeing of Your people. Guide and bless these senators with Your wisdom and Your justice so that they may rightly enact laws that truly serve the common good.

Assist this dedicated group with Your counsel and fortitude. May the light of Your divine wisdom guide all deliberations in this chamber. May this place be the wellspring of Your goodness made visible. May it truly be even a sanctuary where Your laws of justice, mercy, and love have their say.

May these senators elected by their fellow citizens and chosen by You be filled with the spirit of courage so that in season and out of season they may act always in accord with your divine will.

And let these chosen ones know as well the joy of serving you in their service to all especially the poor.

We make this pray this day and all days to you Our God who is with us now and forever Amen.

Prayer for Maryland State Senate Feb. 6th 2017 Dr. Bob Parsley Pastor FBC Crofton

Almighty God,

May you bless and help all the men and women of the Maryland State Senate this evening with your wisdom and divine guidance. Their task is large but you are able to provide them all with insight and understanding in their decision making. May they always be the champions of those who most need their protection under law. May they work with each other and know by serving the citizens of our state they are also serving You. Give them the two most important tools for lawmakers, keen minds and kind hearts.

In your name we pray

AMEN

Most gracious and wise God. Thank you for the ability to come before you with our requests. We are urged in 1 Timothy 2:1-2 first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

We lift prayers today for each of us who have been called to these positions, whether in State, National or Local government, that we would put the interests of the people we serve ahead of our own. That the policies we put forward will enable our citizens to live peaceably.

To paraphrase a prayer from Chronicles, Give us wisdom and knowledge, that we may lead this people. You, Lord are the source of wisdom. Please help us to be sensitive to your leading.

Lord, we know that we come from different backgrounds, different experiences. Help us to be respectful of the differences, as you have uniquely created each of us for your purpose. Help us to learn from each other and teach us to find common ground. Help us to exercise grace when we disagree.

Thank you for bringing each of us to these positions. Please let your Spirit guide us each day to do what is right and good.

Amen

Senate Invocation for February 8, 2017

Episcopal Advocacy Day

The Right Reverend Eugene Taylor Sutton, Bishop of Maryland

Almighty God, who hast given the citizens of Maryland this good land for our heritage: we humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless this state with honorable industry, sound learning, and public manners. Save us from violence, discord and confusion; from pride and arrogance, prejudice and greed. Keep us ever mindful of all poor and neglected persons whom it would be easy for us to forget: the homeless and the destitute, the old and the sick, and all who have none to care for them. We thank thee that thou hast blessed Maryland with the abundance of earth, winds and waters; give us reverence for your creation and the wisdom to use these resources of nature rightly for the welfare of all and for future generations. We beseech thee to guide the Senators and Delegates of this General Assembly, the Governor and officials in the executive branch, and those who sit in our Courts of Justice, that they may be given the spirit of charity and understanding in discerning what is best for our common good. May the barriers that divide us crumble, may suspicions disappear, and hatreds cease; that our divisions being healed in Maryland may become a beacon of hope for our nation. Grant this for the sake of thy love for all people, Amen.

MARYLAND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OPENING OF SENATE SESSION INVOCATION
FEBRUARY 9, 2017

Blessed are you, God of all creation, for your goodness in calling us to life this day.

Blessed are you, who have brought us together this day as we place our talents and skills at work in your service, in a spirit of genuine harmony and mutual respect, with sincere and compassionate concern for all. Strengthen us with your grace and wisdom, that everything we do may begin with your inspiration, continue with your help and find fulfillment in your will.

Aware of so many needs which challenge us, help us to fulfill with integrity the responsibilities that have been entrusted to us, and guide us in our efforts to promote the well-being of our brothers and sisters in the service of the common good.

Mindful that all that we say and all that we do is done in your holy presence, we ask these things, and those which remain in the silence of our hearts, with confidence in your abiding goodness and love. In your holy name, we pray. Amen

Invocation before the Senate

February 10, 2017

Nick Garrett

Let us pray,

Heavenly Father, that you would take my simple words this morning and assign them meaning for each individual that hears them as you see fit... God, that you would offer an additional measure of that most valuable asset – wisdom - to Mr. President, the majority and minority leadership and that along with it you would strengthen them to handle the burden that comes with wisdom...

God, today, please bless, and inspire with passion, fairness, and loyalty all the staff charged with serving the institution of the Maryland Senate and its members - from the desk clerks down to the copyists and cleaners that we be thoughtful to each other...

and lord as for the members, it strikes many that nothing in your creation happens by accident... you have in your providence called the forty-seven members currently serving from among millions of Marylanders... God we thank you because we know this is by design, and not simply chance... There is no doubt that you have called each of them to be Senators, and during a complex time in America... Strengthen them father that each may rise to the challenges you have set out for them... develop in them the assets of statesmanship and stewardship.

Finally, great creator of the Universe, remind us that we will be treated today the way we treated others yesterday, God, please let that be a cornerstone in each person's faith no matter how diverse, unique, or different. We are grateful today God, and thank you for your providence and your protection of the great state of Maryland. Amen!

INVOCATION OFFERED AT THE MARYLAND SENATE ON FEBRUARY 13, 2017
BY CHAPLAIN CHRISTIAN J. JENSEN

God of our Fathers;
God of our spiritual fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob;
God of our national fathers Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln;

We are reminded today that in trying to lead our Nation during difficult times, President Lincoln said:

“I have been driven many times upon my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.”

As Lincoln, we too are in need of wisdom, oh God.

You said to Solomon, “Ask for whatever you want Me to give you” and he answered, “Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of Yours?” You said, “Since this is your heart’s desire, and you have not asked for wealth, possessions or honor ... but for wisdom and knowledge to govern My people ... therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you...” (2 Chronicles 1:7, 10-12)

Your Word also promises: “If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.” (James 1:5)

So, Father –

We humbly come into Your Presence now, and on behalf of the leadership of this great State of Maryland, we ask You for wisdom and knowledge to govern Your people.

But we know from Your Word, Lord, that we must be careful of what kind of wisdom we seek: “Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, ...[s]uch ‘wisdom’ does not come down from heaven but is earthly.... For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder.... But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.” (James 3:13-17)

Heavenly Father, this is the kind of wisdom we seek, and in exercising this heavenly wisdom, may these, Your leaders, govern Your people, act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. (Micah 6:8)

Merciful Father, we close recalling the words of President Lincoln in saying:

“... amid the greatest difficulties of my Administration, when I could not see any other resort, I would place my whole reliance on God, knowing that all would go well, and that He would decide for the right.”

So do we place our whole reliance on You, oh God, both now and forever.

Amen.

Rev. Vivian C. McCarthy

Almighty God, creator and sustainer of all life, fount of wisdom and truth,
source of all that is good in the world, we give you thanks and praise for a new day full of promise, possibility and hope.

On this special day when we celebrate the joys of love,
we pray for all people who every day seek to deepen and strengthen their relationships with their spouses and children – relationships which build healthy and whole community.

We also pray for those who seek to find that special relationship that gives deep and lasting joy.

We also pray for men and women who are lonely, whose deepest desire is to be loved and accepted.

Today we pray for the day when people in every community of this beautiful State will seek the good of the whole.

Move through your people so that we will learn to reach beyond the familiar to embrace our neighbors in Maryland and beyond – with no distinction as to race, creed, sexuality, gender, or economic bracket.

Grant the people of Maryland grace so that we can see your face in those who are not like us, genuinely valuing the amazing artistry of the kaleidoscopic tapestry of the human family into which you have breathed the breath and beauty of life.

Open the minds and hearts of these your servants in the Maryland Senate, Encouraging each of them to lead with humility and vision, every day seeking the best for the citizens of Maryland,
our country and indeed, of your world.

Give them courage to speak up and speak out to lift up those who most need their support – those in the community who live in poverty and with hunger, those who can't quite make their paychecks meet the demands of everyday life, those who live in danger of abuse or neglect, those who are systematically dismissed because of ethnicity or gender,
those who are the most vulnerable of our neighbors,
the precious children in our care and the vulnerable planet that we share as our home.

Protect these civic leader-servants from the slings and arrows that too often wear leaders down.

Protect them from the temptations that may come to be unduly influenced by those with a personal stake in public concerns and the temptation to lead out of a sense of self-interest.

Give them hearts to understand the needs of your people,
the wisdom to discern what is best for the community, and the strength to lead even on the days when they are weary.
We praise you for your steadfast love and promise and ask that goodness and good will flourish in this your community.
Hear our prayer. Amen.

Reverend Greg St. Cyr

For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes...Fear the Lord your God and serve him. Hold fast to him and take your oaths in his name. He is the one you praise; he is your God, who performs for you great and awesome wonders. Deuteronomy 10:17,20-21

Lord God Almighty, we pause this morning to acknowledge that there is none like You – great, mighty, and awesome. You are all-powerful, ever-present, all-knowing, and sovereign. You are full of love, grace, and mercy. You are holy and just in all your ways. We pause to reflect on who you are and your presence here today.

This morning help us to remember to have a holy reverence for you and to serve You in all we do. May each of us hold fast to you in the midst of challenges, burdens, convictions, and debate. Help us to faithfully fulfill the oath of office we each vowed: “to the best of my skill and judgment, diligently and faithfully, without partiality or prejudice, to execute the office of Senator, according to the Constitution and Laws of this State.” Make it so today, Lord! Give us skill and sound judgment. Help us to be faithful, diligent, and without prejudice. Help us to bring our very best.

I pray for any burdens and concerns that are weighing on us. Family needs, health issues, business challenges, relational concerns, pressure from the busyness and responsibilities required. Lord, grant wisdom, strength, peace, and fruitfulness today.

Nothing is impossible for you. You are a God who performs great and awesome wonders. I pray you would do that in each of our lives today for you are our praise.

Make it so Lord.

Amen.

Lord Almighty, you are the one who gives us life and breath and everything else. You sustain us in this world and in the world to come. This prayer is an earnest petition for our people, our state and this assembly. Would you guide this body with the character of the Marylanders who preceded us, with the compassion of Mother Seton, with the sense of right of Frederick Douglas, and the leadership abilities of John Hanson. We ask this in the name of the one who is the brightness of God's glory and the expressed image of His person, in whom the fullness of deity dwells. Amen

INVOCATION

MARYLAND SENATE

February 17, 2017

ALMIGHTY GOD, we address you this morning from the common ground of our faith and dependence on you. Giver of life and all good things, we acknowledge your providential care and benevolence; and we do so with thankful hearts.

First, as we are admonished to do, we give thanks for our nation and those who lead us in government. May they be conscious of the benefits of faith and prayer, and may they each and all draw faithfully upon that wisdom which is from on high: first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity. And the harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

We also give thanks and lift up to you those who serve this sovereign and good State of Maryland.

- Governor Larry Hogan,
- his cabinet and staff;
- Senate President Mike Miller and Pro Tem Nathaniel McFadden;
- the leaders of each party – Senators Peters and Jennings.
- Blessings upon them each and all, and upon each person who serves as a Maryland State Senator today.

Our prayer of gratitude and for mercy is made also on behalf of the Staff of the Senate, and in particular those who labor here year-round and keep this government running well. We also include those who serve in often unnoticed ways, but without whom our work would grind to a halt – those who serve in maintenance and security and clerical positions.

Setting aside our partisan differences for this moment of unity in your presence, merciful God, we ask that you give us wisdom with compassion in these tumultuous days of strong opinions. We ask that you help us balance

- public safety and security with mercy;
- fiscal stewardship with mindfulness of the poor and destitute;
- strong, informed points of view with a spirit of understanding and unity.

You are God Almighty, and you are the author of our lives. We close this petition for your grace with this: every Senator is also a member of a family – they love their families and their families love them. We pray for the health, the safety and the general well-being of each Senator and each senator's family.

Dear God, thank you for your presence among us, for listening with a mind to answer, and for the gift of life which has been imparted to us through your own Spirit. Amen.

MARYLAND SENATE INVOCATION

Rev. Abhi Janamanchi,

Cedar Lane Unitarian Universalist Church, Bethesda, MD

Nameless One of Many Names,
You who has endowed us with the inalienable rights of Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness,
Holy and beautiful is this day which brings us together
In remembrance, celebration, and hope.

Here we have gathered holding a common value
That the glory of our nation rests first and foremost in its diversity.
Out of many colors,
Out of many cultures,
Out of many beliefs,
Out of many views,
Out of many voices,
Out of many accents,
Out of many passions,
Out of many experiences,
Out of many circumstances,
We are one.

We remember those who led our nation,
Who served with integrity, honesty, humility, and courage,
Who sacrificed their lives for freedom, dignity, and justice,
And whose values and convictions we seek to embody
In our lives and through our actions.

Spirit of Life and Love,
Help us to never forget that we need not be alike or think alike to live alike and love alike.
Teach us how to live, love, and labor in your service,
And ever to walk in the ways of your commandment
To love our neighbors as ourselves.

We ask for forgiveness this day
For our national and individual transgressions ...
When we have chosen inaction, indifference, or silence in the face of injustice, prejudice, and abuse of power --

and our failure to claim our own.

We ask for a blessing on this nation
according to our own faith and forms
And pledge our voice in support of bringing forth justice, equity, and compassion into these times.
May the promise of a more perfect union
Be a reality for all people.

With "malice toward none, charity for all,
With firmness in the right,"
Help us "to bind up the nation's wounds,"
And to do all which may achieve and cherish
A just and a lasting peace among ourselves
And with all nations."

These and the prayers of our hearts we pray now
In the names of those who have come before
And those who are yet to be,
In the name of all that is holy, life affirming, and life sustaining,
We say,
Peace. Salaam. Shalom. Om Shanti. Amen.

Good and gracious God, We thank you for the sustaining love and goodness that we know daily, the providential care that you show us through those you have blessed us with and those you call us to bless. We are meeting today to conduct matters for the good of our state in the workings of a democratic government. We ask for a special outpouring of your Spirit upon the work that is before us today. Guide our hearts and our minds in the spirit of fairness, right thought and speech. May these decisions build a society of goodness, kindness, justice, mercy and peace. Where your Spirit is given, there is always hope and light. Impart Your supreme wisdom upon our activities so that we may reach a successful conclusion. As we embark of the work of this session, may everything we do begin with Your inspiration and continue with your saving help. Let our work always have its origin in You and through You reach completion. Have Mercy Upon us and Hear our Prayer. Amen

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will.

Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask in you name. Amen.

Pastor Adam Forbes

Good and Gracious God,

We thank you for another day you have given each of us here today. We thank for the great possibilities of this day, and specifically this session.

We ask that you send your wisdom upon these leaders today, as they strive to do what is best for your people and this great state of Maryland.

As they anticipate opportunities and progress this day, give them strength to put aside the swords of partisanship for the plowshares of justice for all people. Where there is greed, sew compassion; where there is reservation, sew faith; where there is uncertainty, sew hope.

Above all, Gracious God, may you empower each person here to live into their abilities which you have given them. May they serve today pursuing mercy, justice and walking humbly with you. If and when they are face-to-face with their own human limitations, give them strength to trust that you are with them. Give them open minds to discern and patience to listen to one another as together they guide this Senate.

Finally, eternal God, as you are the creator of all life, breathe life into this assembly; give them peace, courage and wisdom for the living and service of today.

In your name we pray,

AMEN.

Let Us Pray:

God our creator, we humble ourselves before you this day, giving you thanks for life and for the abundance of the blessings we have received, seen and unseen.

We stand before you this morning, seeking guidance as the matters before us are about to enter into deliberation. Some will be easy, while others may be difficult. We ask you to help us to gain a sense of who we; for we are, in the final analysis, citizens of the great State of Maryland.

Let your wisdom come forth upon this legislative body of men and women who have been entrusted with great responsibility. Grant them hearts of grace, justice, and love for the power placed within each of them, as well as the power placed within this body as a whole.

We pray that their minds will always be led to do those things that will be for the greater good of the entire human family. Help them to lead in ways that will move us all to greater unity. We pray for a contagion demonstration of love that will spread throughout our state. We pray for a shift from a distant possibility of this occurring, to an immediate probability of the same.

May all done today be done to your glory.

Invocation before the Maryland Senate

Pastor Dante Hickman

Lord we thank you for life, health and strength.

And we thank you for the gifts and graces that you give us to lead and to serve in times like these.

We ask that you would forgive us for any of our conversations, deliberations or legislation that have been beneath your standard and not according to your divine will.

We welcome your divine presence into this assembly and we pray for your perpetual blessings upon this legislative body. And as they enact public policies please enable them to be guided by integrity, humility and sensitivity to the needs of the children, communities and citizens of our great state.

God we know that there is no power greater than you. Help these Senators that you have created to remain sober to the reality that everything they have and enjoy belongs to you.

And as we thank you and trust you in all things we ask for your divine protection and provision not just for us but also for those who need job stabilization, quality education, safe immigration and community transformation.

Lord, help these elected officials to submit to your sovereignty and embrace their humanity in making decisions on behalf of the diverse communities of our state.

We believe by faith that you hear us and according to your will you will help us. Have your way. In your name we pray. Amen!

Maryland State Senate Invocation*
Rabbi Doug Heifetz, Oseh Shalom
February 28, 2017

[Adapted in part from Rabbi Shmuly Yanklowitz]

Eternal, source of life, source of compassion, please give us courage at this critical juncture. Please continue to give our state senators strength, patience and compassion.

We pray that the vision of the prophets of old—the redemptive power of justice; relief for the poor, welcome for the marginal, protection for the oppressed, care for the sick—and the vision of a land of opportunity should be brought about. May our elected officials help to lead the way toward kindness, justice and harmony. May they lead us safely away from the pits of hatred and cruelty, xenophobia, homophobia and bigotry, pits of hatred which are seething with growing power at this time.

We pray that the powerful should not harm the innocent. We pray that any policies that are meant to harm the vulnerable in prioritization of the powerful and privileged will be quashed. Should there be plans that will merely benefit the most privileged among us, but not all of humankind and the planet we call home, may they fail. Grant us the strength to demonstrate spiritual resistance, to imbue our sinews with the highest integrity. Give us the wisdom and courage to do what's right to protect the most powerless and defenseless in society.

May agents of hate who stray from Your holy vision of love and justice, found within and outside our country, be averted. May all of Your creations be handled mercifully. May all to whom You have given the sanctity of life awaken and fulfill their calling to bring love, justice, and kindness to all corners of Your world.

May Your land, and our Maryland State Senate, strive to be a blessing for all. Amen.

Invocation before the Maryland Senate
March 1, 2017
Dr. Tarek Elgawhary and Rabbi Adam Raskin

TAREK: We stand before you as residents of the great state of Maryland, representing two faith traditions that have chosen to work together for the betterment of the wider community. This work has demonstrated to us that we are always stronger together, more powerful with each other, effective as a group, and healing when we come together as one community. We have each called upon the strongest elements of our respective traditions to ensure that diversity is always seen as strength not weakness, an asset not a liability. Our congregations have made an open commitment to work together continuously to address the problems and challenges we face together. We echo the Lord's promise, "And if My servant asks about me, indeed I am near." (Quran 2:186)

ADAM: Nearly 400 years ago Cecil Calvert established the province of Maryland as a haven for persecuted Catholics. Yet Maryland soon welcomed Protestant settlers as well. And in the centuries that followed, Maryland has become a vibrant home to Jewish and Muslim Americans, and people of faith traditions, ethnicities, and races as diverse as humanity itself. Though we each call upon God by different names, address God in different languages, serve God in different ways, may we be united in our commitment to the profound dignity of our all of our neighbors, without exception. As we learn in the book of Genesis, each and every person is created in the image and likeness of God. [1:26]

TAREK: As we ask continuously that the Almighty guide our work and bring us together across our faith divides, may that same spirit of diversity guide your work in this noble house. May the diversity of our great state be reflected in your decisions and deliberations. Through your leadership, may all the residents of Maryland find comfort, companionship, safety, protection, and love.

ADAM: May the One who makes peace in the heavens, cause peace to descend upon us, the great State of Maryland, and all who inhabit it...And let us say: Amen

March 2, 2017

Bishop J.L. Carter, Ark Church, 1263 East North Ave., Baltimore, Maryland, 21202, 410-539-1591

Our father, creator of the universe, creator of heaven and earth, we thank you for the many possibilities that you have placed before us to serve mankind. We thank you for choosing us to serve the people of the state of Maryland.

In this session there are a multitude of issues and concerns that demands sensitivity, sincerity and sound mind. This body of legislators has been chosen by the people to serve with integrity and we pray they will always keep you first and the people second when making the critical life changing decisions. Oh God help this gathering of legislators to know right from wrong, sensitivity from insensitivity, the divine from the demonic and that which is Godly from the ungodly.

God of us all; we are living in a very difficult time. The cries of those who are at the bottom of the well can be heard loud clear. Those who are unemployed, those who are trapped in poverty, those who have been written off by society refuse to be silent. Hard times have convinced them to believe, things will never get better. We pray that by your might this elected group will not turn a deaf ear and respond with real solutions and determination to meet people where they are.

Oh God our country is hurting and it appears, those who can make a huge difference are disabled, dysfunctional and disconnected as to what to do. I pray that our legislators will understand the massive weight of their responsibility, to chisel out a pathway for the disenfranchised, the disinherited and the distress, creating an immediate enhancement to their present which will lead to a prosperous future.

I pray oh God for the families of our legislators; democrats, republicans and others. Blessed their marriages, bless their children, bless their health and bless their finances as they strive to serve with excellence. Keep those who are single and bless them and their family also. May you grant them wisdom and understanding in all that they do to create a better Maryland.

Hear this our pray, hear this our request and may your peace and blessings remain throughout this session in the name of the one who is the giver, sustainer and the reclamer of life, we pray. AMEM.

Prayer at the Maryland State Senate, 3 March 2017

Eternal Father, with grateful hearts we thank you for the freedom and abundance with which you have graced the United States of America. These blessing we enjoy because of the wisdom enshrined in our State and National constitutions, combined with the skill, integrity, and undaunted commitment manifested by our legislators at every level of government. Dear Lord, assembled in this state capitol, unequaled in history and unsurpassed in continuous service, we ask you to bless all who gather here, Senators, staff, and visitors. Be pleased to bestow the gift of insight on all who are entrusted with the writing of laws and the leadership of the community. Grant all our Senators the stamina to persist in the defense of freedom and human dignity, and the patience and flexibility to bring forth legislation to the benefit of the maximum number of citizens, with the minimum amount of division and rancor. On all the members of the State Senate send the gift of good health and good humor, that working together with their colleagues in the House of Delegates and Governor's office, they might continue to do great things for the people of Maryland. Provide the wisdom they need to solve challenging problems, and the strength they require to grasp every opportunity to improve the lives and character of the people of this great State. Finally, bless the people of Maryland with peace in their communities, respect and mutual support among all the citizenry, and prosperity for all, especially those most in need.

In your most holy Name we pray. Amen!

Maryland State Senate Prayer
March 6, 2017

Almighty God,

we thank you for the State of Maryland and our nation. This evening we bring before you these men and women who have been called upon to serve the citizens of our great State. May the power of Your Presence rest upon each of them and strengthen them for the duties they have before them.

We do not consider lightly the responsibility of leadership bestowed upon these men and women. Direct their leadership with holy wisdom. For holy wisdom is pure, it is also peace loving, gentle at all times and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no partiality and is always sincere; it chooses the harder right instead of the easier wrong.

We ask for your holy wisdom and favor here on the state of Maryland. We pray favor and blessings for our Governor, Larry Hogan, that you grant him wisdom in collaborating with the Maryland Assembly. We pray your favor and blessings for the President of the Senate, Mike Miller, and all of the members this assembly; may they use their influence for the good and may their leadership foster understanding, integrity and a willingness to get things done for the betterment of the people of Maryland.

Now God, may the service of this body continue to offer hope for us, the citizens of Maryland. May the decisions made here result in action and assistance for our needs, and may the shared leadership of this body lead to a better future. We humbly ask these things in Your mighty name. Amen

Pastor Brian Corrick

Mighty God. We know that You are the author of life and so we begin today by giving thanks that You have allowed us to have this day. We thank You that You have brought us safely to this place today. Kind Father, we ask now that Your guiding hand will be on this assembly this morning.

We know that You are not a God of confusion. So because of this we appeal to You to give clear minds to each person in this place. We ask for order in everything that happens here today. We know that we live in contentious times. We know that there are certainly deep disagreements in this place. But God, we also know that You are a God of peace. So we are making our appeal to You that You will bring a spirit of peace to this place today.

Father God, these people have a serious task. They have the task of making decisions on behalf of others. Their decisions will affect the lives of Your people. Father because of this we ask You to give abundant wisdom in every thought and action. Guide their minds today. Guide their hearts today. And we ask that you guide their words today.

Father we are entrusting this day to You. We commit this assembly into Your hands. And we trust that you will bless this day for Your sake and for Your glory. Amen

Minister Nick Garrett

Let us Pray:

Heavenly father, prepare us for the day ahead. We are grateful for the mercy and grace we find in you, in other words – forgiveness Lord; the ability to leave the mistakes and wrongs of even just yesterday in the past. We can start fresh day by day and sometimes even hour by hour.

Today let us be self-aware, treat others with kindness and compassion, and remember those that help you to accomplish the Will that your authority permits. Most of all show each of us how to submit ourselves to you in a way that is pleasing and brings glory to you.

Each of us may approach you in different ways and have many different conceptions of you, yet still foster in us the willingness to submit to something bigger than ourselves and to find a few moments of solitude even if just once today to consult with you God.

And we all say..... Amen.

Invocation before the Maryland Senate

Almighty God,

When you shower us with your gifts and blessings, may we always count good government as one of the greater gifts you can give your children.

We ask your blessings on our State of Maryland, and those who have been called to work for justice, peace, and the common good.

Give our leaders and their staffs the wisdom, intelligence, skills and stamina they need to bring health and wholeness to all our citizens.

As they do the good and holy work of government, and make the decisions and policies to accomplish the goal of making life better and safe for all people, may they act with civility, gentleness, and pureness of heart.

Remind your servants to be respectful of one another, even when thinking and holding a different opinion or solution. Help them to work together in peace, with a sense of good will, profound humor, and a spirit of gentleness.

May we walk humbly with you as we all use our lives to bring justice, peace, and a greater good to the people we serve.

Almighty God, hear our prayer. Amen.

Prayer for Maryland State Senate, Monday, March 13th, 2017

By Rev. Carrie M. Finch-Burriss

O Holy God, we give you thanks. We thank you for bringing together this group of people, our elected officials, who have committed their time and energy to the betterment of your people. We thank you for the beauty of this land we call home. We thank you for the creativity, love and hope you give your people Lord. And we now humbly ask that you bless these civil servants as they enter into tonight's session. Bless them with wisdom and courage to serve you and all the people of Maryland. Bless their decisions and discussions. Bless their time and willingness to serve. May the people of this great state, all the people, be in the forefront of their decisions. May we, in all that we do, work towards a more peaceful world, a world filled with hope and opportunity for all. In all that we do, may we seek to be a light in the darkness. In your name we pray. Amen.

Senator Andrew Serafini Prayer 3/14/17

An Irish gravestone was inscribed with the following:

Pause my friend as you pass by

As you are now so once was I

As I am now you to shall be

Be sure my friend to follow me

A fellow Irishman read the tombstone and left the following note:

To follow you is not my intent

Until I know which way you went!!

Before we pray this morning we should all consider what this is really saying. All of us have a worldview or a perspective on life. There are four questions we all must answer, whether by religion or philosophy, those are:

Origin, Meaning, Morality, and Destiny

Origin, where did we come from? Meaning, is there purpose to life? Morality, is there a moral law that applies to all of us? Destiny, what happens when we die? All of life is summed up in these questions.

Let us pray

Dear Lord, thank you for your goodness and mercy to all who gather here. Thank you for each of these servant leaders. I ask that you guide all of us in doing the work of the people of this great state. Help us all consider eternity and what that means for us and those with whom we interact. We pray for this in your name. Amen.

Almighty God,

I thank you this morning for the members of the Maryland Senate who gather to begin their daily work.

May you bless them with wisdom and right judgment to address the issues that will come before them today. May our great state flourish under their leadership now and in the years to come.

Bless them, their families, their staff members, and our state now and always.

Amen.

Gracious God, thank you for the gift of today.

Refresh me.

Invite me to discover your presence in each person that I meet and every event that I encounter.

Teach me when to speak
and when to listen,
when to ponder
and when to share.

In moments of challenge and decision attune my heart to the whisperings of your Wisdom.

As I undertake ordinary and unnoticed tasks, gift me with simple joy.

When my day goes well,
may I rejoice.

When it grows difficult,
surprise me with new possibilities.
When life is overwhelming,
call me to quiet moments to restore your Peace and Harmony.

May my living today reveal your Goodness.

Creator of us all: hear our prayer this day.

We pray for peace in the midst of a world that knows much strife.

We pray for health in that midst of a world filled with sickness.

We pray for hope in a world filled with disillusionment.

We pray for wisdom in the midst of world that needs the best from its leaders.

We pray our world that it will be sustained by your love and grace.

May we all this day offer these our heartfelt prayers to the One who sustains us in our daily lives.

Amen

Be thou present oh God of Wisdom, and direct the council's of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation. That the scene of blood may be speedily closed; that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish amongst the people. Preserve health in their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them and millions here they represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in God's name.

Prayer for the Maryland State Senate
March 22, 2017
10:00 A.M.
Given by Rev. Patrick D. Clayborn, Ph.D.

God,

We come before Your presence with joy and thank You for every blessing You've given us - blessings of life, health, strength, shelter, and love. God, we thank You for how You've blessed our state with some thriving communities, some growing businesses, and some loving citizens - those who are altruistic, compassionate, and dedicated. Thank You for those persons who serve as law enforcement, military, health care professionals, teachers, social workers, and in any profession that lifts our state. Thank You for allowing us to sit in seats of influence that can empower the disenfranchised, provide resources for the poor, repair institutions that are broken, grant justice to the downtrodden, show mercy to those who want forgiveness, and eradicate the evils that plague our cities, state, country and world.

We also come before You with great concern. There are so many injustices that continue to go unnoticed and unheard. We have those who are homeless, unjustly incarcerated, starving, unemployed, struggling to keep their business afloat, sitting in foster care, wondering how to provide their children with a quality education, and equally employed but getting less pay because of their gender. God, due to the transition of our national leadership, a large cross section of our citizenship is afraid and deeply troubled. They wonder if our democracy was tampered with by a foreign country. They wonder if they or their loved ones will be deported. They wonder if they will lose their health care. They wonder if a wall is worth the money that this country will pay. They wonder if our new national posture will incite opposition towards us. They even wonder if we, sitting here, are working in their best interests.

God, search our hearts. If we are focused in areas that are unjust, ineffective, and irrelevant, turn our attention to an agenda that will honor You and will bless Your people. Fill us with love and strength to bring help and hope to every citizen in our state. Grant us the wisdom, creativity, and courage to overcome the complex problems we face.

Help us to make decisions on this day that will save a soul from domestic violence, human trafficking, poverty, a lack of education, and any form of marginalization. Help us to make decisions that will build families, communities, and faith in the inalienable rights of America: life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

God, let this be the day where we make a difference.

We pray this prayer in the name of hope, healing, love, justice, grace and truth.

In Your name we pray,

Amen.

Sovereign and Most High God, our Higher Power, Who created us all out of Your great love, instruct us in Your ways of love. Help us this day to recognize the value in all persons. Help us to appreciate all of Your creation. Help us to see the value in our differences. Help us this day to recognize our differences can still be part of Your plan for humanity.

We have gathered as part of the human equation, the human story, and we have been given this awesome responsibility to govern, for such a time as this. Guide our leaders and our beloved state of Maryland as we strive to live out Your love. Help us reach across the aisle and into the neighborhoods we represent to serve all of Your people. Help us to do what is best for the whole rather than what benefits a few of us. May our decisions allow us to look in the mirror and say well done good and faithful servant of the people.

Eternal and Everlasting God, bless the members of this governing body. Guide their deliberations, that they may govern this great state with wisdom and with justice from You. Help us to act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with our God, our Higher Power. Amen.

Friends, Colleagues... Happy Maryland Day!

Let us bow our heads and pray,

God, your Providence is Just... whether we ask for it or not... It has been widely prayed this session that you remind each of us to fulfill the calling you have laid out for us, whether Senators, or staff...

Now we are reaching the apex of the session... long days... and some controversial issues... Dear lord, let an air of civility permeate the chamber. Let us not grab for the heavy, golden-armor of King Saul when it comes to defending our ideas, and advancing the Will of our constituents... ... as many will recall the armor was to no avail... God in his providence had already decided that it was not the king in his armor, but the simple Shephard, with no armor, and five smooth stones, that David would take into battle against his Giant. Let us reach for the smooth stones of David in fighting our own giants, dear friends.

Heavenly father, help us to remember today this analogy, this symbol, that our civility toward each, our sisterhood, and brotherhood... our fraternity, is what will empower us to face the giant issues before the great State of Maryland. And God's people say, Amen!

Let us pray

Our God, creator and sustainer...

We seek your divine guidance in deciding matters for our state, and all the people of this state.

Fill our hearts with knowledge so that we can distinguish right from wrong.

Let our decisions help promote love over hatred and wellbeing over hardship, and prosperity over poverty.

Oh most merciful lord, instill mercy and compassion in our hearts and set matter right between us so that we may live and work in peace and harmony, for you our lord are the most compassionate most merciful

Oh most merciful Lord, instill mercy and compassion in our hearts and set matters right between us. Allow us to live and work in peace and harmony, for you our Lord, are the most compassionate most merciful.

We ask that you free our hearts from prejudice, greed, and malice.

We ask you, Lord to help our leaders enjoin justice with an eye that sees no difference between creed, color, economic status, or ethnicity, as you God are the most just towards all your creation.

We ask you to protect our families from deterioration, and inspire us and our children to be men and women of truth, justice, and compassion.

We ask you, who have set the balance, to lead us to median avenues that do not tyrannize the wealthy or abandon the poor and that do not stifle the growth or harm creatures who glorify you by day and by night.

We seek your aid in being better guests and better hosts in a land that is yours.

One nation under God indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

You our Lord are the Ruler of all rulers, the King of all kings, the ever watching over all that we do.

All praise is for you, most high, subtle, and aware, knower of the hidden and manifest.

May the peace and mercy be upon our representatives, and may peace and compassion flow through all the decisions that they make for our great state of Maryland and for our blessed country.

Amen

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you all to visit with our Islamic center of Lexington Park, MD and share some of our experiences.

Reverend Matthew Fuhrman

Almighty God, we thank you for this day, and for the gift and opportunity to serve. We thank you for the men and women of the MD State Senate and the office and responsibility to which they have been elected. We pray that you grant to them wisdom and guidance, a spirit of care and devotion for all those whom they represent, and for this beautiful and wonderful part of your Creation called "Maryland" in which we live. Use us as instruments of your will to give hope and opportunity to all. To remember and uphold the ideals and freedoms which we share as citizens of this great nation. And to see and value others as brothers and sisters of the same Creator and deserving of honor, and compassion, and respect. May your spirit be with us now and always. In your name we pray. AMEN

Rev. Dr. C. Anthony Hunt

Epworth Chapel United Methodist Church, Baltimore, MD

O God, from the rising of the sun, until the going down of the same – your name is worthy to be praised. God, we come together today to do what it is that you would will for us to do. We realize that you have created each of us for a particular work and unique calling. We come together hearing the cry that the ancient prophet intimated, a cry that is our collective prayer that you would live and breathe and exist among us to let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as an ever-flowing stream. (Amos 5:24) O God we pray that you would see to it that as another ancient prophet intimated, we would do justice and love kindness and walk humbly with you. (Micah 6:8)

Our prayer today is aligned with the cry of those who depend upon us the most - the needy, the left out, those who have the least among us. We pray for hearts of care, concern and compassion for the needy, and we pray for the wisdom to do what is right in your sight.

O God, we pray today for the great state of Maryland, and this country where we dwell. Bless those here and afar who lead us. Bless the places from which each of us has come. Bless every town and city, every community and home. Bless the schools where our children learn and the fields where they play.

Bless those who teach our children, those who protect our communities, and all of those who serve the common good.

For we know that it is the common good that is your divine concern. Connect your will with our will that we will see better, and know better and do even better in the days that are ahead of us.

It is in your divine will that we seek to live today, that as yet another ancient prophet declared, we would know that you already know the plans you have for us, plans not to harm us, but plans for our well-being, and that your plans are to give us a future with hope.

And it is in that hope that we place our faith and trust today. Amen.

Senate Invocation

By

Rev. Shirley A. Gravely-Currie

God of grace and mercy, we humbly bow before you this morning to thank you for being our Jehovah Jirah, our provider; Jehovah Nakah, our guide; and Jehovah Shalom, our peace. As our Jehovah Jirah/provider, we pray that you will provide for our nation, our great state, every elected official in the Senate, the House, and every County and municipality. We pray for the families and constituents represented here, as well as everyone under the sound of my voice, including the gifted staff, the Pages, the State Troopers, the bill drafters, the photo copiers, the interns, and the guests in this Chamber who have come to witness the Legislative Branch in action.

As our Jehovah Nakah, the guide of these elected officials, we pray that your servants will not have a divided mind, and that you will guide them with an attitude of excellence as they seek extreme answers to tough issues and questions before this body. We pray for a nurturing community and radical reconciliation, rather than partisan bickering, knowing that you will not fail nor forsake us, and that all things will work together for good to them that love you.

As a testament of hope, let us be reminded that your standard of justice leaves no room for prejudice, only the simple truth. Now, Jehovah Shalom, God of Peace, knowing that your hand is in everything, I pray that everything will be left in your hand, for regardless of the afflictions we face, we can have peace knowing that we win by YOUR grace. I pray God of Peace, that in happy moments, we praise God; in difficult moments, we seek God; in quiet moments, we worship God; in painful moments, we trust God; and EVERY moment, we thank God. AMEN!

PRAYER FOR THE MARYLAND SENATE

by Rev. Benjamin B. Uy Bengkee, Jr.

(Senior Pastor of River Of Life International Christian Fellowship located at White Marsh, Maryland)

Session on Friday, March 31, 2017

Let us bow our heads and pray...

OUR MOST GRACIOUS HEAVENLY FATHER, in these halls are laws tediously discussed, deliberated and enacted by these distinguished men and women of the Maryland Senate. It is our earnest desire that through them, You will bless us with Laws that will benefit the majority, if not all, of our beloved Marylanders now and for the generations to come.

We ask Your blessings upon every Senator, their families, their staff and volunteers, the committees that they diligently meet who toil tirelessly in these very important ninety days of legislating laws. Bless, O Lord the constituents and families whom they represent in their respective districts and areas of jurisdiction. Keep them abreast and sensitive to the needs of these Your precious children who reside and work in this beautiful State of Maryland.

Thank You, Lord, that You have granted us another day to admire the beauty of being with co-legislators. With diverse opinions, ideas and political affiliations, we are here to present ourselves as the ones whom You have ordained for such a time as this. We humble and present ourselves to You, Lord. That You will use us all to do Your will today. We believe, Dear God, that Unity in Diversity can be achieved with humility.

May we always remember to uphold and honor one another. Respect each person's views and at the end of each day bring into agreement that You have brought us together in unity - grateful that you have allowed us to exercise our God-given freedoms so that we may live in a better, safer and more prosperous Maryland according to Your precepts and to best of our abilities.

Empower and enable each person present here to be the best representative to their constituents. Looking forward for the challenges that lie ahead, grant us peace, joy and fervor as we do our job today.

Bless even the person beside me (you may encourage the person beside you by shaking the person's hand or tap his or her shoulder) and may You grant us all good health, long life and the ability to love the unlovable, forgive the unforgivable and grant grace freely to others as we have received the same from You.

Bless this day, Lord, and the rest of our Senate sessions. In God we put all our trust. Amen and Amen.

Holy and loving God, in whom we live, move and have our being, we give You thanks and praise for the gift of life and for this new day which affords to us new opportunities to begin again, to love more deeply, and to serve more humbly. As we begin this day filled with both duties and challenges, we are encouraged, knowing that Your mercies and Your grace are new every morning. As we prepare for the work ahead today, we look to thy holy Word and heed the counsel of Proverbs 3:5-6 to, "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not on thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths." (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Guide our words and actions today. Let discernment over the difficult issues of our day be wise. Grant us strength to persevere in the ways that make for peace. Open our eyes that we might see the goodness in what we do here in this room. Open our ears that we may hear Your voice and the will of all Your people. Open our hearts that we might be compassionate in all that we do. Grant us Your wisdom that we may know the right decisions to make. Grant us Your strength that we might resist that which draws us away from good and fair judgment. Strengthen our courage and our resolve to stand up for those issues we know to be just.

Protect and watch over all those who are, today, in harm's way that we might continue to do our work. Console the families of those heroes domestic and abroad who sacrifice their very lives that we might be free. For the gift of liberty and responsibility as leaders of this great nation we are truly and eternally grateful.

When evening comes and our duty is done, may we know the deep contentment of work completed today which honors our state, our great nation, and glorifies Your name.

Amen.

Almighty God, Creator and Sustainer, we give You thanks and praise for the gift of life and for this new day which affords us new opportunities to begin again, to love more deeply, and to serve more humbly. As we begin this day filled with both duties and challenges, we are encouraged, knowing that Your mercies and Your grace are new every morning.

As we prepare for the work ahead today, we look to You to guide our words and our actions. Let discernment over the difficult issues of our day be wise. Grant us strength to persevere in the ways that make for peace. Open our eyes that we might see the goodness in what we do here in this room. Rabbi Avichai Pepper

Good morning Honored and distinguished dignitaries,

Just over a week ago I had the privilege of participating in a communal playground build. We at the Berman Hebrew Academy, with the help of many of the people in this chamber were able to replace our old and decrepit playground with a new beautiful playground. It was not just that we received a new playground, but we as an entire Community actually built it. And I must say that after building the triple racer slide, I was a bit skeptical to let my children play on it.

The highlight of the build, was while I was piecing together this enormous slide and looked up, I noticed along with the rest of close to 300 volunteers from different parts of the community, our local law enforcement joined the team of volunteers moving the tons and tons of mulch. This really highlighted Community.

This gathered Council understands the ideas of Community more than any other group of people. The Senators in this room represent the entire community of the great state of Maryland, and work tirelessly for this community.

We are currently in the Jewish month of Nissan the month of freedom and redemption. In this month, over three thousand years ago, the Jewish people became free of slavery, with a new beginning as a community, and received one of the greatest gifts, dignity.

This honorable Senate faces New Beginnings, understandings of freedom, and above all dignity respect to the people that it serves. This is truly heavenly work. In Such I deliver the Priestly prayer found in Numbers 6.

Our heavenly father.

May God bless us and Safeguard us.

May God illuminate and finds favor in our work.

יְבָרְכֶה ה' וַיִּשְׁמְרֶךָ

יְאֵר ה' פְּנֵי אֱלֹהֶיךָ וַיַּחַנֶּךָ

יֵשֶׁא ה' פְּנֵי אֱלֹהֶיךָ וַיִּשֶׂם לְךָ שְׁלוֹם

May God look upon us in grant us with peace.

In conclusion, we ask that God fulfill the verse in Exodus 20:

וּבְרַכְתִּיךָ אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי שְׁמִי אֶת אֲזְכִיר אֲשֶׁר הַמְקוֹם בְּכָל

Any place that we Proclaim God's great name, He will come to us and He will bless us and our work.

And let us say Amen.

A Prayer for the Senate of Maryland
Offered by the Rev. Karen F. Bunnell
Elkton United Methodist Church
April 6, 2017

God of us all, God of new days and new beginnings, God who speaks in a still, small voice or the roar of thunder, God who gives us gifts every day, to you O God we lift our prayers this day. We thank you for another day of life, another day to do the work to which you have called us, another day to be the people you would have us be.

On this day O God, we thank you for the privilege of being in this place. This State House is rich in history, for many great men and women have walked these halls and sat in these chambers to work for the good of the citizens of Maryland. Lord, we pray for those who do that now. We pray for each of these Senators as, on this last Thursday of the session, we know that they are growing weary, and still have much to do in the next few days. For weeks on end, they have been faithful in attending hearings and meetings, talking with constituents and each other, working on legislation and so much more. They have traveled many miles and spent more time than they have wanted away from family and friends. So we ask a special portion of your grace for each of them today and in the remaining days of the session. Give to them strength, wisdom, and courage. Cause them to always seek the greater good for the citizens of our state, and remind them Lord of your presence with them in their work.

Hear our prayers as well for all others who work for them and with them, both here in the State House and around Maryland. They are invaluable in keeping things running smoothly, and we know Lord, that they too are growing weary. So fill them with all they need in the days ahead.

Finally O God, we lift in prayer all of the citizens of this state, and remember especially those who serve others – in police and fire departments, in the military, in education and health care. Be with all of the citizens of Maryland O God and grant them your presence and your peace.

Gracious God, with gratefulness for your blessings, and especially for the gift you have given us of living in this beautiful state – from the ocean on the east, to the mountains on the west, the beautiful bay in the middle, and so much more – from watermen, to business persons, to bright-eyed children and wise elders – from Terps to Ravens to Orioles and more – for all of these things O God, and especially for this day of life, we give you thanks.

So now we entrust this day to you O God, and begin a new session of the Senate of the State of Maryland. In your name we pray. Amen.

Invocation for the Maryland Senate

April 7, 2017
Maryland State Senate

Dear Wise and loving God,

I ask your special blessings upon the Maryland Senate this morning.

I also pray and ask your many blessings upon all their aids and those whom they appear for.

God I ask your spirit to take charge in this chamber right now. I pray that as of right now, there would be a sweet presence of your spirit permeating in the atmosphere here. God I pray that as of today, there will be a new governance here, because they will begin to recognize that they have been appointed by You, God and not man. I pray that they would be reminded that, the decisions that they make affect the people that you God, have created in your own image. God may they seek Your wisdom and knowledge. God we pray, that they will make decisions that will honor You always! We ask these Today marks a finish line as we wrap up the 437th session. On behalf of the citizens of the state of Maryland that you have diligently served, thank you! I want to offer a prayer this morning based on St. Paul's "thank you" letter to the Philippians.

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy... And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless... then you will make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others... Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your reasonableness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God... Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things... Now to our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen

2016 Vetoed Senate Bills and Messages

May 27, 2016

The Honorable Thomas V. Miller, Jr.
Senate President
H-107 State House
Annapolis, MD 21401

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 33 – Anne Arundel County – Alcoholic Beverages – Licenses.

This bill authorizes in Anne Arundel County a holder of a Class BLX license to be issued a music permit, an entertainment permit, an outdoor permit or an outdoor entertainment permit and authorizes a holder of a Class BLX license to be issued a dancing permit, except under specified circumstances. The bill also exempts specified alcoholic beverages licenses in the county from a prohibition against issuing multiple licenses to any one person and exempts a Class BLX license from a prohibition against issuing an alcoholic beverages license for a specified location.

House Bill 642, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 33.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 540 – Morgan State University – Student Housing.

Senate Bill 540 represents an improper and unwarranted interference by the State legislature into what is clearly a local zoning matter in Baltimore City. Local jurisdictions must be permitted to exert authority over zoning without the threat of reversal by members of the General Assembly, the vast majority of whom have little or no understanding of the interplay among community associations in Baltimore City.

This bill would prohibit the Board of Regents of Morgan State University from entering into any contract for student housing that is located in the 1500 block of Havenwood Road in Baltimore City unless the Hillen Road Improvement Association approves. The bill also specifies conditions that must be met if the Morgan State University Board of Regents enters into such a student housing contract.

Senate Bill 540 places artificial state legislative constraints over Baltimore City zoning authority. It would remove the ability of the local authorities to enforce zoning laws and would instead give undue and wholly improper influence to one specific community association to make a determination on whether a development project should move forward.

The proposed development at Havenwood Road is an innovative public–private partnership that offers the amenities of student housing, food stores, and shopping that could spur additional economic activity adjoining the campus of Morgan State University. It is not the role of the State to micromanage such local zoning and development issues nor should the State rescind zoning authority from the local government and place it in the hands of a few members of one third–party group. If allowed to take effect, Senate Bill 540 would have serious implications for the State as a whole by undermining the local authority of municipalities and counties.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Senate Bill 540.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 899 – Maryland Medical Assistance Program – Specialty Mental Health and Substance Use Disorder Services – Parity.

This bill requires the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene to adopt regulations necessary to ensure that the Maryland Medical Assistance Program is in compliance with specified federal laws and provides that the Department is not required to adopt specified regulations for any change that may be made through a process other than the regulatory process. The bill also requires the regulations to include standards regarding treatment limitations for specialty mental health and substance use disorder services that comply with the federal laws.

House Bill 1217, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 899.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

Senate Bill 899

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Medical Assistance Program – Specialty Mental Health and Substance Use Disorder Services – Parity

FOR the purpose of requiring the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene to adopt regulations necessary to ensure that the Maryland Medical Assistance Program is in compliance with certain federal laws; providing that the Department is not required to adopt certain regulations for certain changes; requiring the regulations to include standards regarding treatment limitations for specialty mental health and substance use disorder services that comply with the federal laws and relate to certain items; providing that the treatment limitations comply with the federal laws if certain factors used in applying a treatment limitation meet certain requirements for medical and surgical services; and generally relating to the Maryland Medical Assistance Program and compliance with federal laws relating to specialty mental health and substance use disorder services.

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 907 – Transportation – Harry W. Nice Memorial Potomac River Bridge – Replacement.

The Harry W. Nice Memorial Potomac River Bridge is a high priority of this Administration and any claims to the contrary are simply untrue. Over $61 million is allocated in Maryland's six-year Consolidated Transportation Plan for environmental studies, test borings, engineering, planning, right-of-way acquisition and replacement designs. To maintain the existing structure, annual inspections and prioritized repairs are accomplished to ensure safety of the bridge. As recently as last June 23, the Board of Public Works voted to approve a $15 million design and engineering contract with a firm to perform preliminary design and engineering for the bridge's replacement.

Given this Administration's sizable investment in this facility, this legislation is entirely unnecessary.

In the context of numerous bills introduced over the past two sessions that erode the long-established powers of Maryland's Executive Branch, Senate Bill 907 intrudes on the Maryland Transportation Authority's (MDTA) statutory independence, creates an environment that encourages litigation by bondholders, and statutorily prioritizes certain MDTA projects over others. This legislation is every bit as regrettable as House Bill 1013 which the General Assembly passed in order to dictate which transportation projects get selected though a misguided and inept scoring matrix established by statute.

Instead of proceeding through the highly acclaimed professional process of MDTA to select a project of this magnitude, the General Assembly passed Senate Bill 907 which is likely the first of many bills attempting to push a transportation project to the head of the line by legislative “logrolling” – i.e. vote trading by Senators and Delegates to obtain passage of legislation provincial to each member. Since the early 20th century, Maryland has avoided the practice of logrolling in transportation projects and school construction by deferring to professional evaluations and nonpartisan processes in project selection. This bill foreshadows what will happen under House Bill 1013 whereby transportation projects with low scores are championed by powerful legislators who substitute raw political muscle instead of unbiased professional judgment for the selection of projects in Maryland’s Consolidated Transportation Plan.

By substituting the judgment of the General Assembly for the rational and professional selection process of MDTA, Senate Bill 907 would mandate the appropriation of $75 million of MDTA revenues into a fund starting in Fiscal Year 2018 solely for the Harry W. Nice Memorial Potomac River Bridge. The bill also mandates certain design elements such as the number of required lanes as well as mandating a construction and operational deadline of December 31, 2030.

Simply put, this bill is a de facto amendment to our trust agreement with bondholders and impacts MDTA’s ability to fund the required and necessary maintenance of the MDTA system. The MDTA’s General Account funds are used to facilitate the capital program on a pay-as-you-go basis. Mandating a $75 million annual payment from the General Account to the Nice Bridge Replacement Fund puts the funding of the replacement project above all other MDTA capital projects, regardless of system needs. This may impact MDTA’s ability to address other important needs at the William Preston Lane Jr. Memorial Bay Bridge and other facilities across the State.

Under the provisions of Senate Bill 907, the integrity of the MDTA’s position with bond rating agencies is threatened. MDTA requires flexibility in meeting its required bond ratios and honoring its commitments to bondholders without legislative interference. The existing trust agreement places a priority on system maintenance and preservation and the diversion of funds required by the bill jeopardizes that agreement.

Moreover, Senate Bill 907 mandates the actual construction of a replacement Harry W. Nice Memorial Potomac River Bridge by a date certain without regard to the significant funding gap within the legislation or compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and other federal requirements. Such statutory requirements and the mandated funding under Senate Bill 907 presupposes an outcome that limits the MDTA for future options such as a public-private partnership. Doing so would be costly and would not be in the State’s best interests. Moreover, in an action contrary to Senate Bill 907’s proposed replacement costs of $700 million to $1 billion, the General Assembly passed the Budget Reconciliation and Financing Act of 2015 that limits MDTA borrowing authority by $700 million until fiscal 2021.

Senate Bill 907 further violates the statutory independence of the MDTA and the terms of the Trust Agreement by requiring MDTA to seek approval from the Maryland General Assembly’s Legislative Policy Committee before reprioritizing funds in an emergency situation. Interjecting politics into this process and requiring the approval of a third party infringes on MDTA’s independent ability to address system emergencies expeditiously.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Senate Bill 907.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 910 – Maryland Education Development Collaborative – Established.

In its current form, Senate Bill 910 violates the separation of powers of Article 8 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights which specifically precludes the General Assembly from appointing its members to a board or commission that performs executive functions. This bill would establish the Maryland Education Development Collaborative to advise the Maryland State Board of Education, the General Assembly, and local school systems regarding education policies. The proposed Collaborative would have a governing board of 18 members including one member of the Senate and one member of the House of Delegates, which directly violates the separation of powers clause. The Board members collectively are given the authority to hire an executive director and may retain any necessary professional help. In addition they can accept any loans, grants, or assistance from public and private entities and can enter into contracts and other legal negotiations.

With regard to the violation of Article 8 separation of powers, statutory legislative members serving on the governing board of the Collaborative would be decision-makers as a party entering into binding contracts on behalf of the State thus performing a core executive branch function that violates long-standing separation of powers between the Executive and Legislative branches.

In addition, Senate Bill 910 likely causes a violation of the prohibition against plural office holding found in Article III, §11 of the State Constitution. If Senate Bill 910 became law, legislators who are members of the Collaborative governing board will be members of an “office of trust” that is incompatible with simultaneous service in the Maryland General Assembly.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Senate Bill 910.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 921 – Clean Energy Jobs – Renewable Energy Portfolio Standard Revisions.

This legislation is a tax increase that will be levied upon every single electricity ratepayer in Maryland and, for that reason alone, I cannot allow it to become law. Specifically, Senate Bill 921 will impose a tax increase of between $49 million to $196 million by 2020 in order to fund the proposed increase in the State's Renewable Energy Portfolio Standard (RPS) compliance.

The goal of Senate Bill 921 to increase the State's Renewable Energy Portfolio Standard (RPS) to 25% by 2020 is laudable, but increasing taxes to achieve this goal is the wrong approach. In 2014, Maryland ratepayers already were assessed over $104 million dollars for renewable energy credits (RECs) in 2014 (the last year for which data is available). As explained above, Senate Bill 921 would impose an additional burden on ratepayers.

Under the existing law, Maryland retains its status as a national leader in achieving RPS goals. Maryland's electric suppliers must meet the RPS by accumulating the equivalent amount of renewable energy credits (RECs) that equal the percentage of their respective total supply in the State. In 2016, suppliers must demonstrate they have accumulated RECs at a percentage of 15.9 of their total electric supply into Maryland. This includes 12.7% for Tier 1 renewables, 0.7% for Tier 1 solar, and 2.5% for Tier 2 hydroelectric. The current goal is for Maryland to reach 20% by 2020 with the inclusion of standards for solar (at least 2%) and offshore wind (no more than 2.5%) by 2022.

Electricity suppliers and consumers share an obligation to develop a minimum level of renewable resources in the electricity supply portfolio of the State. The State first adopted an RPS in 2004 and has subsequently revised it. Maryland's existing RPS has benefitted Maryland's clean energy industry. While I appreciate the economic benefit of Maryland's growing solar industry, there is also a corresponding cost which is borne by all citizens under Senate Bill 921. I believe the State should not add to this burden.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Senate Bill 921.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.

May 27, 2016

The Honorable Thomas V. Miller, Jr.
 Senate President
 H-107 State House
 Annapolis, MD 21401

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have vetoed Senate Bill 1125 – Education – Public School Opportunities Enhancement Act.

This bill establishes the Public School Opportunities Enhancement Program, provides that the purpose of the Program is to provide grants to local school systems, community schools, and nonprofit organizations in the State to assist in expanding or creating extended day and summer enhancement programs and to expand and support educational programs during the school day for specified organizations. The bill also requires the Governor, for fiscal years 2018 through 2021, to include $7,500,000 annually in the State budget for the program.

House Bill 1402, which was passed by the General Assembly and went into effect without my signature, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 1125.

Sincerely,

Governor Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr.
