Thurgood Marshall Memorial Prior to July 2018

Two Children Represented in the 1954 Brown vs. Board of Education of Topeka Supreme Court Case sitting on the bench facing Justice Thurgood Marshall that was resurrected on Lawyer's Mall.

Donald Gaines Murray, who was the first African American to enter the University of Maryland School of Law after winning a landmark case in 1935 championed by Thurgood Marshall (then lawyer for the Baltimore Chapter of NAACP). Marshall argued against the racial injustice of segregation and famously claimed "What's at stake here is more than the rights of my client. It's the moral commitment stated in our country's creed."
