THE SENATE OF MARYLAND
ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND 21401

Vote Yes on Senate Bill SB: 687

Bill Title: Criminal Procedure - Expungement of Conviction - Driving While Privilege Is Canceled, Suspended, Refused, or Revoked

Hearing Date: February 26, 2020 at 12:00 p.m.

Chair: Senator William C. Smith, Jr., Vice Chair: Senator Jeff Waldstreicher

I write to you today in reference to an important issue that affects Marylanders across the state. Senate Bill 687 will allow people who were charge without a license to expunge the charges after ten years.

We have done an exceptional amount of work around the Justice Reinvestment Act. Unfortunately, we fell short around the issue of driving without a suspended license being an expungable offense. Let me reiterate once again, Senate Bill 687 will make driving without a license an expungable offense.

In an effort to help support Maryland residents who were charged with driving without a license or driving while having a suspended license, we urge you to provide a favorable report on Senate Bill 687.

Respectfully,

Cory V. McCray
State Senator
