

I support Senate Bill 705. Seclusion and restraint are tactics used in schools that is ineffective, outdated, and traumatizing for everyone involved. This legislation, if signed into law, could benefit the lives of children across the state of Maryland.