

March 1, 2022

HB 832

I am writing in opposition to this bill. I am thankful for the opportunity to have homeschooled my children the last 2 years during the uncertainty of the pandemic. I do not feel as though more government involvement in homeschooling is a positive thing. When I chose to homeschool my children, the process was easy and it worked. Please reject this bill for I do not think the system is broken.

Thank you,

Melanie Rodriguez