

Were this bill amended to make the curriculum opt-in, and allowed parental review such that the opt-in could be done with informed consent then I would be much more favorable towards it.