

I would prefer this bill be amended to be opted into, and parents are able to review the curriculum so that they have informed consent.