

The Lamp Lab - Findings

- The yellow triangles are the breeding sites the Department of Entomology lab was able to identify over the last 2 years.
- You can see the history of their work, surveys, and findings on the website, mdblackfly.com, and the specifics in the written testimony.