

Maryland Voters Support Medical Aid in Dying

A wide majority of Maryland voters support the End-of-Life Option Act, a bill that would allow medical aid in dying as an option for mentally capable, terminally ill adults to peacefully end unbearable suffering. This voter support is consistently strong regardless of race, religion, party affiliation, their position on abortion, where they live, or whether they live with a disability.

Source: Gonzales Research & Media Services, Jan. 23–Feb. 2, 2024. Phone poll of 815 registered voters in Maryland who vote regularly.