

As a Maryland constituent, I oppose this "End of Life Options Act". No one but God has the right to end the earthly life of anybody.

Moreover, it places physicians in the position of acting against their mission. It is fraught with the potential for abuse, as has happened in other countries. This will happen here, especially as we know that this bill gives medical personnel the legal authority to circumvent the role of patients' families.

Janet Baker

19012 Capehart Drive

Montgomery Village, MD 20886