The Office of the Attorney General urges the Rules and Executive Nominations Committee to report Delegate Edith Patterson's House Joint Resolution 1 - Affirming the Federal Equal Rights Amendment favorably. House Joint Resolution 1 (HJ1) would urge the President Biden Administration to publish the federal Equal Rights Amendment as the 28th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. HJ1 would urge the U.S. Congress to affirm the Equal Rights Amendment as the 28th Amendment.

The Office of the Attorney General believes that there should be no time limit on equality. Throughout his time in Congress, Attorney General Brown has co-sponsored House Resolutions that sought to reaffirm and remove the deadline for the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) enshrining it as the 28th Amendment of the Constitution.<sup>1</sup> The ERA would enshrine women's equality in the Constitution by mandating that "equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.”<sup>2</sup> Currently, the only right explicitly guaranteed regardless of sex in the U.S. Constitution is the 19th Amendment right to vote. Passage of the ERA would create a new tool to advance equality in the fields of employment and pay, pregnancy discrimination, sexual harassment, violence, reproductive autonomy, and protections for LGBTQ+ individuals.

Every American deserves a fair and equal opportunity to thrive and provide for themselves and their families. Inequality is unacceptable, harmful and runs counter to our values as a country. Passage of HJ1 affirms the Maryland General Assembly’s belief in equal rights for all.

For the foregoing reasons, the Office of the Attorney General urges a favorable report on HJ1.
