

Dear Members of the Judicial Proceedings Committee,

This testimony is being submitted by Showing Up for Racial Justice Baltimore, a group of individuals working to move white folks as part of a multi-racial movement for equity and racial justice in Baltimore City and Baltimore County. We are working with the Campaign for Justice, Safety, and Jobs. I am a resident of District 8. I am testifying in opposition to SB052, the Juvenile Justice Restoration Act.

Showing Up for Racial Justice

Last session, the General Assembly passed legislation designed to improve Maryland's juvenile justice system, based on recommendations made after considered study of data and practices. The "restoration" this bill refers to is a rollback of last year's reforms. This bill would prosecute children as young as 10 years old, a proposal that flies in the face of decency and common sense. Ten-year-olds do not belong in handcuffs, and arresting and sending them through the juvenile justice system is going to hurt much more than it promises to help.

This bill also intends to make it easier for police to question children by substituting the decision of a parent or guardian for the knowledge of an attorney. In passing the Child Interrogation Protection Act (CIPA) last year, this committee- and the legislature as a whole- recognized that children have both a diminished capacity to understand their legal rights and a greater vulnerability to coercion by adults. They determined that children ought to be protected from giving up their right to consult an attorney without really understanding it. CIPA requires the police to both notify a child's parent or guardian of their intent to question the child, and ensure that the child actually receives advice from counsel before the questioning takes place. This bill would allow the child's parent or guardian to consent to interrogating the child without an attorney's advice.

Last year, you recognized that kids waive their rights and make false confessions more often than adults, necessitating an extra layer of protection between arrested children and interrogation. The need for CIPA has not changed, and so CIPA should not change. It is for these reasons that I am encouraging you to vote against SB052.

Thank you for your time, service, and consideration.

Sincerely,
