

Respected Committee Members,

As a former women's athlete and mother of an athletic daughter, I implore you to protect the sanctity of women's sports by ensuring competitive teams remain female. While I believe sports are important for all children who wish to play, female athletes should not be sacrificed on the altar of inclusion. Please keep women's sports female and support efforts for equal opportunity, fairness, privacy, and safety without jeopardizing our daughters.