

Yes on SB524

SB524 is a common sense measure that will save time for The Maryland Higher Education Commission and will avoid putting the Commission in the awkward position of having to unnecessarily regulate religious institutions of learning.

Please give SB524 a favorable report.