

I strongly oppose comprehensive sexual education in public schools.
MD schools are failing at educating kids. Stick to academics and let parents determine when and what kids need to know about sex.