10 REPRESENTATIVE AND THE ESTATE REPRESENTED:

11 (i) The foreign personal representative's appointment;

12 (ii) The foreign personal representative's name and address;

13 (iii) The name and address of the foreign personal representative's
14 Maryland agent for service of process on file with the register in each county where real or 15 leasehold property was located;

16 (iv) The name of the court that appointed the foreign personal
17 representative;

18 (v) A brief description of all real and leasehold property owned by 19 the decedent in the county;

20 (vi) The date of the decedent's death; and

21 (vii) The following statement: All persons having claims against the 22 decedent must present their claims to the undersigned, or file them with the register of 23 wills on or before the earlier of the following dates:

24 1. 6 months from the date of the decedent's death; or

25 2. 2 months after the foreign personal representative mails
26 or otherwise delivers to the creditor a copy of this published notice or other written notice,
27 notifying the creditor that the creditor's claim will be barred unless the creditor presents
28 the claim within 2 months from the mailing or other delivery of the notice[;].

29 (2) [Record in each appropriate office of the register a certification that the 30 foreign personal representative has published notice as required; and

1 (3)] Promptly after a proceeding under this subtitle has been instituted, A
2 FOREIGN PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE SHALL comply with the provisions of § 7-103.1
3 of this article.

4 (c) (1) Within the time periods provided under subsection (b) of this section, a
5 creditor may file with the register a written statement of the creditor’s claim, in the form
6 set forth in § 8-104(c) of this article, and if a foreign personal representative has instituted
7 a proceeding under this subtitle deliver or mail a copy of the statement to the personal
8 representative.

9 (2) (i) The register shall maintain a book known as the “Claims Against 10 Nonresident Decedents” book in which every claim and release shall be recorded.

11 (ii) Unless and until a release of a validly recorded claim has been 12 recorded, or the claim has finally been determined in favor of the personal representative, 13 the claim shall constitute a lien against the real and leasehold property owned by the 14 decedent in the county at the time of death for a period of 12 years from date of death.

15 (iii) If the personal representative is empowered by the will to sell the 16 property the claim shall constitute a lien against the net proceeds from the sale.

17 7-103.

18 (a) [(1)] After the appointment of a personal representative, the register shall 19 [have a notice of the appointment published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 20 county of appointment once a week in 3 successive weeks], FOR 3 WEEKS, PUBLISH
21 NOTICE ON THE CENTRALIZED WEBSITE ESTABLISHED UNDER § 2-208 OF THIS
22 ARTICLE, announcing the appointment and address of the personal representative, and 23 notifying creditors of the estate to present their claims.

24 [(2) The personal representative shall file or have filed with the register a
25 certification that a notice has been published.]

26 (b) The notice of appointment shall be substantially in the following form:

27 “To all persons interested in the estate of

28 This is to give notice that the undersigned, whose address is was, on 29, appointed personal representative of the estate of who died on (with)
30 (without) a will.

31 All persons having any objection to the appointment (or to the probate of the will of 32 the decedent) shall file the same with the register of wills on or before 6 months from the 33 date of the appointment.

34 All persons having claims against the decedent must present their claims to the 35 undersigned, or file them with the register of wills on or before the earlier of the following
36 dates:

1 (1) 6 months from the date of the decedent’s death; or

2 (2) 2 months after the personal representative mails or otherwise delivers to
3 the creditor a copy of this published notice or other written notice, notifying the creditor
4 that the creditor’s claim will be barred unless the creditor presents the claim within 2
5 months from the mailing or other delivery of the notice.

6 Any claim not filed on or before that date, or any extension provided by law, is 7 unenforceable thereafter.

8
9 Personal representative

10 Date of first publication:
11”.

12 7–104.

13 (a) Not later than 20 days after the appointment of a personal representative, the 14 personal representative shall deliver to the register the text of the first published
15 [newspaper] WEBSITE notice of the appointment and shall advise the register of the names 16 and addresses of the heirs of the decedent and of the legatees to the extent known by the 17 personal representative, so that the register may issue the notices provided in § 2–210 of 18 this article.

19 (b) The provisions of this section do not apply to a successor personal
20 representative if notice under this section has been given previously, or to a person
21 appointed pursuant to judicial probate.

22 9–112.

23 (a) (1) If the personal representative cannot obtain agreement from all
24 interested persons entitled to share in the distribution of the property, the personal 25 representative may apply to the court to make distribution.

26 (2) The court shall designate a day and direct the giving of notice to all
27 interested persons concerned.

28 (3) The court may appoint two disinterested individuals, not related to the 29 interested persons to make an appropriate division for distribution, or recommend to the 30 court a sale of part or all of the property, and the court shall direct the distribution it
31 considers appropriate.

32 (b) If a majority in relation to value fails to appear on the appointed day, or appear 33 and object to the distribution suggested, or if the court considers a sale of part or all of the 34 property more appropriate and advantageous, the personal representative shall make the 35 sale or sales and divide the proceeds, together with unsold property, as the court directs.

36 (c) If the personal representative has reason to believe that there may be one or 37 more interested persons whose names or addresses are not known to the personal 38 representative, or if it is not known to the personal representative if an interested person

1 is still surviving, the personal representative may appoint a meeting of all interested
2 persons to be held on a day the court designates.

3 (d) (1) The personal representative shall give notice to all interested persons
4 known to the personal representative, and THE REGISTER shall, FOR 3 WEEKS, publish a
5 notice of the meeting [once a week in 3 successive weeks, in a newspaper of general
6 circulation in the county of the personal representative's appointment,] ON THE
7 CENTRALIZED WEBSITE ESTABLISHED UNDER § 2-208 OF THIS ARTICLE stating the 8 time, date, place, and purpose of the meeting which shall be held no sooner than 20 days
9 after the first publication.

10 (2) The personal representative shall also take other steps and make other 11 efforts to learn the names and addresses of additional interested persons as the court
12 considers appropriate under the circumstances.

13 (e) (1) On the date of the meeting, distribution of the net estate shall be made
14 under the direction and control of the court.

15 (2) Distribution by the personal representative in accordance with the 16 direction of the court at the meeting protects and indemnifies the personal representative
17 acting in obedience to it.

18 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
19 October 1, 2024.
