

SENATE BILL 839

D3

4lr2142
CF HB 832

By: Senator Sydnor

Introduced and read first time: February 2, 2024

Assigned to: Judicial Proceedings

A BILL ENTITLED

1 AN ACT concerning

2 General Provisions – Damages or Losses – Definition

3 FOR the purpose of defining “damages” or “losses” in certain statutory causes of action; and 4 generally relating to damages or losses.

5 BY adding to

6 Article – General Provisions

7 Section 1–107.1

8 Annotated Code of Maryland

9 (2019 Replacement Volume and 2023 Supplement)

10 Preamble

11 WHEREAS, Pursuant to Article 19 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, the 12 Maryland Constitution expressly provides that every person shall have the rights and 13 remedies as established by the laws of Maryland including those enacted by the Maryland
14 General Assembly; and

15 WHEREAS, Pursuant to Article 19 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, 16 Maryland’s Constitution also incorporates the common law of England that existed as of 17 July 4, 1776, in the Court of Law and Equity and also all Acts of Assembly in force and 18 effective as of June 1, 1867; and

19 WHEREAS, Maryland law and the common law have long recognized the ability of 20 an aggrieved party to recover nominal damages in an action at law and such damages affect 21 the behavior of the defendant towards the plaintiff and thus independently provide redress;
22 and

23 WHEREAS, The common law of England incorporated into Maryland’s Constitution
24 has also recognized the right to reasonable nominal damages as stated by Blackstone’s
25 statement, “where there is a legal right there is also a legal remedy, by suit or action of law,

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

1 whenever that right is invaded” (William Blackstone, Commentaries on the Laws of 2 England); and

3 WHEREAS, Certain conservative advocates influence to some members of the 4 Supreme Court of the United States, like the Federalist Society, seek to close the 5 courthouse doors to persons seeking to enforce the private and public remedies available
6 under Maryland law including those related to civil rights and consumer protections; and

7 WHEREAS, Recent appellate decisions, such as the TransUnion LLC v. Ramirez,
8 594 U.S. 413 (2021) and Arkansas State Conference NAACP v. Arkansas Board of 9 Apportionment, 86 F.4th 1204 (8th Cir. 2023), are examples of the recent efforts to limit
10 the rights and remedies available to certain protected classes of persons and consumers;
11 and

12 WHEREAS, In light of the retrenchment of civil rights and consumer protections as 13 exemplified by the trends of the current majority of the United States Supreme Court and 14 their proponents like the Federalist Society, the Maryland General Assembly enacts this 15 legislation to ensure that the purposes of Articles 5 and 19 of the Maryland Declaration of 16 Rights are carried out by any courts interpreting Maryland law; now, therefore,

17 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
18 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

19 Article – General Provisions

20 1–107.1.

21 IN STATUTORY CAUSES OF ACTION CREATED BY THIS CODE TO PROTECT CIVIL
22 RIGHTS OR CONSUMER RIGHTS, “DAMAGES” OR “LOSSES”:

23 (1) MEANS MONEY CLAIMED BY, OR ORDERED TO BE PAID TO, A
24 PERSON AS COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OR INJURY RESULTING FROM THE VIOLATION
25 OF THE PERSON’S RIGHTS OR PROTECTIONS; AND

26 (2) INCLUDES REASONABLE NOMINAL DAMAGES.

27 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
28 October 1, 2024.
