FISCAL NOTE
Revised

House Bill 1212 (Delegate Vallario, et al.)
Judiciary

Referred to Budget and Taxation

Estates and Trusts - Register of Wills - Fees and Expenses

This amended bill provides that Registers of Wills need not distribute fees collected for providing probate information booklets directly to the Comptroller. The Registers also do not have to account for the compensation of and duties performed by each employee. The Registers must still account for and report fees, receipts and expenses, and distribute to the Comptroller the excess of fees and receipts over expenses.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Minimal expenditure reductions could be achieved beginning in FY 1997, resulting in a minimal increase in general fund revenue.

Local Effect: None.
