House Bill 363 (Delegate Brinkley, et al.)
Commerce and Government Matters

---

Local Elected Officials - Salary, Compensation, Pension, or Benefits

---

This bill prohibits a county governing body or the governing body of Baltimore City from increasing the salary, compensation, pension, or benefits of specified local “elected officials” between the time of the primary election preceding the next term of office and the beginning of the next term of office.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. Prohibiting increases in salaries and fringe benefits of certain elected local officials during a specified period would not directly affect county and Baltimore City finances. It is expected that any salary and benefit adjustments would be granted at a different time.
