FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 356 (Delegate Poole, et al.)
Commerce and Government Matters

University of Maryland System - Procurement Authority

This bill transfers to the University of Maryland System the procurement authority over supplies funded by the proceeds from State general obligation bonds. Currently, the Department of General Services has this authority through the Board of Public Works.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Potential minimal decrease in expenditures. Revenues would not be affected.

Local Effect: None.

Fiscal Analysis

State Expenditures: To the extent that transferring procurement authority for certain supplies to the University of Maryland system results in operating efficiencies and a decrease in time involved in the procurement process, expenditures due to administrative costs could decrease.
