House Bill 777 (Delegate Harkins, et al.)
Judiciary

Sport Shooting Ranges - Immunity From Liability

This bill prohibits a person from bringing a nuisance action for noise against an owner, operator, or user of a “sport shooting range” if the range was in existence when the person acquired property in the vicinity of the range. The bill also prohibits a person from bringing an action for injuries caused by the negligence of others while using the range, or by natural and foreseeable conditions on the range.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The impact is small enough that it can be handled with existing budgeted resources.
