Senate Bill 111 (Chairman, Judicial Proceedings Committee)
(Departmental - Secretary of State)

Judicial Proceedings

---

Special Police Officers

---

This departmental bill provides that the Governor may suspend the commission of a special police officer and allows the Governor to delegate authority to terminate or suspend the commission of a special police officer to the Secretary of State or the Assistant Secretary of State, or both. The bill also provides for the continuation of an officer's commission if the officer's employer transfers the business property the officer protects to another person for legitimate and legal business purposes.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None. The bill's requirements could be handled with existing resources.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: The Secretary of State has determined that this bill has minimal or no impact on small businesses (attached). Fiscal Services concurs with this assessment.
