Prince George's County - Task Force on the Future Governance, Fiscal Responsibility, and Autonomy of the Prince George's County Board of Education
PG 437-97

This amended bill establishes a 16-member Task Force on the Future Governance, Fiscal Responsibility, and Autonomy of the Prince George's County Board of Education. The task force is required to (1) assess the relationship between the school system and county government agencies; (2) identify future sources of education funding; (3) address the issue of fiscal autonomy for the county board; (4) examine alternative methods for the future governance of the county school system; and (5) study ways to improve student performance and educational outcomes. Staff support for the task force may be provided by the Prince George's County Board of Education, the Prince George's County Executive's Office, and the Prince George's County Council. The task force must report its findings and recommendations by December 20, 1997.

This bill takes effect June 1, 1997 and the task force terminates on December 20, 1997.
