FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 338 (Delegate Hecht, et al.)
Ways and Means

Frederick County - Public School Employees - Employee Organizations

This bill expands the definition of public school employees in Frederick County to include social workers for the purpose of being represented by the employee organization for certificated school employees. Currently these employees are represented by the noncertificated employee organization.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. Expanding the number of school employees that are represented by the certificated school employee organization would not directly affect Frederick County finances.

Small Business Effect: None. Small businesses would not be directly affected.
