FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 958 (Montgomery County Delegation)
Commerce and Government Matters

Montgomery County - Sediment Control Plans
MC 729-97

This bill provides that the soil conservation district in Montgomery County may delegate approval authority for nonagricultural sediment control plans to the Montgomery County government.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. Approval authority in these cases is currently delegated to the Montgomery County Department of Environmental Protection; this bill would allow any authorized department to handle this function. This change would facilitate any possible reorganization of county functions.

Small Business Effect: None. This change in delegated authority would not directly impact small businesses.
