FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 53 (Delegate Cadden)

Appropriations

Anne Arundel County - Education - Capital Projects

This emergency bill allows the Anne Arundel County Board of Education to include a capital project that requires funding over two fiscal years in the board's capital budget regardless of whether the funding period falls during an election year for county officials.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. This bill would simplify the planning process for school capital projects that require funding over two years.

Small Business Effect: None.

Fiscal Analysis

Background: The Anne Arundel County Charter (provision 706b) limits capital projects to one fiscal year in a year in which the county conducts elections; otherwise, the charter allows capital projects to be funded over a two-year period.
