FISCAL NOTE

House Bill 316 (Delegate Curran. et al.)
 Commerce and Government Matters

Fire Departments - Privatization - Referendum Required

This bill prohibits a county or municipality from privatizing fire, emergency medical, paramedic, or rescue services unless an enactment to that effect is submitted to referendum and is passed by a majority of voters in the county or municipality during a general or special election. Currently there are no privatized fire, emergency medical, paramedic, or rescue services in the State of Maryland.

This bill is effective July 1, 1998.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. Should a county or municipality seek to privatize these services, any costs associated with a referendum could be handled with existing resources of local boards of election.

Small Business Effect: None.
